----------Quid non mortalia pectora cogis
Auri ſacra fames----------

A GENEROUS diſintereſted Diſpoſition is one of the faireſt Characters in human Nature: 'Tis this which diſtinguiſhes the Patriot from the Traytor, the liberal Man from the Miſer, and the Publick-Spirited from the Selfiſh. Some indeed have diſputed, whether Mankind be capable of ſo exalted a Temper as an abſolute Diſintereſtedneſs, or not; and indeed, if we judge of paſt by preſent Times, we ſhall be apt to conclude in the Negative; but if we examine the Records of Antiquity, we ſhall find there, adorn'd with immortal Honours, the Names of many a Patriot, who ſeem to have abandoned every ſelfiſh Conſideration, and devoted themſelves entirely to the Service of their Country; and, whenever publick and private Good were inconſiſtent with each other, always gave the former the Preheminence. There we ſhall ſee BRUTUS, the firſt Conſul of ROME, ſtifling all the Emotions of paternal Tenderneſs, and aſſuming the Character of a Judge, and condemning to Death his traiterous Sons, who had conſpired againſt their Country, in attempting the Reſtoration of TARQUIN.----There the God-like CATO riſes to our View,

----------Rome fills his Eyes
With Tears that flow'd not for his own dead Son.

Hear the Language of the Patriot,

----------Alas my Friends, why mourn you thus?
Let not a private Loſs affect your Hearts,
'Tis Rome demands your Tears;--------
----------Rome is no more,
Oh Liberty! Virtue! Oh my Country!

Scipio could reſiſt all the Charms of Beauty, and withſtand all the Solicitations of Love, to prevent the IBERIANS receiving ill Impreſſions of his Countrymen: Nay, REGULUS choſe rather to ſuffer Death by the moſt exquiſite Torments, than conſent the ROMANS ſhould conclude a Treaty of Peace to their Diſadvantage; (would to God there were ſome Imitators of him in the BRITISH Nation!) And many an heroic Patriot of that once illuſtrious Nation, have commanded Armies, undergone all the Fatigues and Difficulties of a Series of Campaigns, ſubdued whole Countries to the ROMAN Empire, and depoſited immenſe Sums in the publick Treaſury, without any Addition to their own private Eſtate. Theſe are Examples worthy of our Imitation: But alas! how little are they imitated by us! So far from it, that many will endeavour to leſſen their Merit, by objecting that Ambition, or a Thirſt of Glory, was the Motive of thoſe noble Actions: If it was Ambition, it was a laudable Ambition, which render'd them far more uſeful Members of Society; and happy were it for us if none aſpired at Honour by leſs honourable Means. But in this Age ſo much is private preferr'd to publick Good, that Men will not ſtick to advance their own particular Intereſt, at the publick Expance. Where are there any BRUTUSES, REGULUSES, CATO'S, or SCIPIO'S to be found among us? CATALINES enough there are, that will defraud, I had almoſt ſaid, ſell their Country, out of a deſtable Avarice: If there are none which do ſo in a proper Senſe, it is well known that there are many who do ſo in ſome Sort, by ſupplying the FRENCH Settlements in AMERICA with Proviſions, which though it be advantageous to private Perſons, is certainly an Injury to the Publick, and therefore deſerves ſome particular Notice, which is the Deſign of this Piece; but as I am no Way injur'd by it but as a Member of Society, it cannot be ſuppoſed that I mean to make perſonal Reflections, or to point out Individuals: Whoever are the Authors, they certainly know who are guilty; and if they find themſelves wounded by this Random-Shot of mine, they muſt blame themſelves for ſtanding in the Way.

Whoever they are, they are guilty of an Infringement of the Laws of ſocial Juſtice, and as real Treaſon to their Country, as if they took up hoſtile Arms againſt it, tho' it is not a Crime of ſo atrocious a Nature. And what can they alledge in Excuſe? They won't ſurely pretend, they feed the Enemy in Obedience to the Command of the Apoſtle, If thine Enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirſt, give him Drink, &c. as was humouroufly ſuggeſted in a late Paper, for they muſt be ſenſible, a publick Enemy is not there intended; No, 'tis in Obedience to their adored Deity Mammon, whoſe Dictates are,

Si rectè poſſis; ſi non quocunque modo rem
Facias----------

They can ſtifle every generous Sentiment, and give Avarice ſo much the Aſcendant in their Minds, as to load their Enemies Magazines, while many of their Countrymen, at a leſs Diſtance, are oppreſs'd with Want, only for the Sake of a little greater Gain.

Tantum amor argenti potuit ſuadere malorum!

HALIFAX, we are informed by the late Papers, ſuffers a great Scarcity of Proviſions, and yet all the trading Veſſels paſs'd to the Eaſtward, ſo that CAPE-BRETON feaſts in Plenty. Surely, unleſs a Perſon had abandon'd his Humanity, it muſt give him a greater Pleaſure, to ſupply his needy Countrymen, tho' at an Under-rate, than all the Advantage extraordinary he could gain by feeding his Country's Enemies.

But ſo little is there of that Diſintereſtedneſs, which was the Glory of Antiquity, in this degenerate Age, that Men will rather injure their Country, rob it of its main Support, even when it is moſt wanted, and put the Enemy in a better Condition to annoy it, than forego their own particular Advantage. And will no Conſiderations reclaim them? Permit me, MY FRIENDS, you that have carried on this Trade, to addreſs you,----

Methinks, the Injuſtice and Unreaſonableneſs of the Practice, or if not, the Injury you do yourſelves thereby, might be ſufficient to deter you from purſuing it; for however you may advance yourſelves in one Reſpect, you injure yourſelves in another; for conſider, Gentlemen, your own Intereſt and that of your Country is indiſſolubly united; 'tis under her Tutelage and Guardianſhip you enjoy Privileges none but ENGLISHMEN can boaſt of; 'tis under her Protection you poſſeſs thoſe Eſtates, you are ſo ſedulous to encreaſe, tho' at her Expence; 'tis impoſſible then ſhe ſhould ſuffer any Calamity, but you muſt in ſome Meaſure be Sharers. Should our Enemies the FRENCH, by your Means ſupply'd with Proviſions, and all Neceſſaries requiſite for ſuch an Undertaking, attempt the Reduction of NORTH AMERICA to the FRENCH Crown (which we know they are very deſirous of) ſhould they ſucceed in the Enterprize (which is not impoſſible) and reduce it to a Province of FRANCE; what Anguiſh and Remorſe muſt you feel in your Breaſts, while conſcious of being yourſelves the Authors of the publick Miſery? Or if you would not pity your Country, as (you may depend upon it) it would not pity you, how piercing muſt be the Reflection, that you had by your Folly deſtroyed yourſelves! Then, GENTLEMEN, where would be your Eſtates which you now break through all the Ties of Society, and all the Obligations of Gratitude and Benevolence, to enlarge? Inſtead of deſcending to your Poſterity, as you intended, rapacious Enemies, from whom you received Part, would ſeize the Whole; and the only Patrimony you could leave your Children, would be the Loſs of Liberty, and Slavery to arbitrary Power, or at beſt a State of ignominious Poverty. I conjure you then, GENTLEMEN, by the ſacred Laws of Heaven, by the Love you owe your Country, at leaſt by your Love to yourſelves and your Poſterity, to relinquiſh this lawleſs Trade; for, believe me, there is more real Satisfaction to be found by a generous Mind, in diſintereſted Acts of Benevolence, and promoting the publick Good, than in all the Treaſures of the INDIES.

MYSOCHRYSUS.

By the Captains Edwards, M^cDaniel, and Partridge, arrived at Boſton from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

ROME, Auguſt 3.

THE Suſpicion of the Reality of the Converſion of the King of Giloło, one of the Philippine Iſlands, has proved well grounded; all he meant by embracing Chriſtianity, was to procure the Aſſiſtance of the Spaniſh Troops in that Country, for ſome Conqueſt he had in his Eye, and when his Turn was ſerved, theſe Auxiliaries were to be maſſacred, and by this Increaſe of Power he intended to make himſelf abſolute every where. His Deſign having tranſpired, he has been depoſed and confined till Orders arrive from Spain how he is further to be diſpoſed of.

Hanover, Auguſt 7. The two Field Pieces ſent from England have been tried; they are 4 Feet long, and carry a Six-pound Ball. M. Heerman, Colonel of Artillery, having placed thoſe two Pieces with two of ours, ſix Feet long, and carrying a Ball of three Pounds, they were fired at a Mark at 600 Paces Diſtance; ours reached Point-blank, but the Balls of the others ploughed the Ground at ſome Diſtance before they reached the Mark. The Engliſh Pieces may be fired 800 Times in three Hours; ours very conveniently 300 Times an Hour in Action. The two Munition Boxes on the Carriage near the Engliſh Guns are objected to, on Account of the Danger of the Cartouches taking Fire.

Madrid, Aug. 13. The Marchioneſs de Torreſillas, who had a great Share in M. de la Enſenada's Confidence, has been obliged to deliver up ſeveral Papers of Importance that he had put into her Hands. An Inventory is taken of that Lord's Effects.

Paris, Aug. 31. Our Parliament is now returned. The firſt Preſident made his Entry on Tueſday Night, when the Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Palace (who are not under the Juriſdiction of the Police) gave the greateſt Demonſtrations of Joy, by firing upwards of 11000 Box Cannon, and as many Sky-rockets. The whole Parliament is to aſſemble the 3d of September to eſtabliſh a Chamber for the Vacations, and every Thing ſeems to portend a good Underſtanding between them and the King. On Tueſday laſt his Majeſty ſent Orders to the Archbiſhop to have Te Deum ſung, on Thurſday the 29th Inſtant, in Thankſgiving for the ſafe Delivery of Madame le Dauphine, and for the Birth of the Duke de Berry; at Night the whole Town was illuminated, the Cannon fired at the Baſtile, Greve and Invalides, attended by the fineſt Fire-works that ever were ſeen; ſeveral Thouſands of Hogſheads of Wine were given to the common People, with Rolls and Polonies: In fine, there is nothing but Joy and Contentment in the Face of every one; and what adds to the reſt is, the plentifuleſt Harveſt that ever was known, and Wine in the greateſt Abundance. The beſt Bread is not Three Farthings a Pound; and Wine worth Five Shillings a Bottle in London, ſells here for Four and Five-pence, and the French Pint is equal to three Winchester Quart; the only Thing that ſells dear is Butchers Meat, which ſells for Three-pence Half-penny, and Four-pence per Pound, for the beſt.

Berlin, Auguſt 24. The Duties on tann'd Hides imported from England into the King's Dominions, are increaſed; inſtead of one Crown 16 Groſches, the former Rate, they are to pay for the future five Crowns 16 Groſches per Quintal.

Dublin, Auguſt 31. Tueſday one Brenan, a Butcher of Ormond Market, againſt whom a Warrant was iſſued by the ſitting Juſtice for an Aſſault, was taken into Cuſtody in Mary's Lane, by two Conſtables, who had not the ſaid Warrant or Authority; the Priſoner intreated them to carry him to Newgate, rather than deliver him up to the Conſtables, whoſe Cruelty and groſs Abuſe of their Office he dreaded; but a Poſſe of the Conſtables coming up to them, fell upon the poor Creature, and cut him in ſo deſperate a Manner, that he died the next Day, when the Coroner's Inqueſt ſat on the Body, and brought in their Verdict Wilful Murder by ſeventeen of the Conſtables, ſeveral of whom are taken and lodged in Newgate, and diligent Search is making after the reſt. There have been great Riots every Day ſince between the Conſtables and Butchers, in which many on both Sides have been mortally wounded; but a Piquet Guard, which is placed at the Watch houſe, at the Foot of Ormond-Bridge, will, it is hoped, prevent any further Commotions, and preſerve the Quiet of the City.

The Biſhop of Cleyne died lately of the Dropſy.

Edinburgh, Aug. 27. In a Letter from a Gentleman, Owner of a Ship, lately arrived from Davis's Streights to his Correſpondent here, we have an Account, that, during the Time of the Fiſhery in theſe Parts, the Weather had been extremely ſtormy, and the Straights where the Fiſh are uſually caught full of Ice; and that although there had been no leſs than Forty-two Ships in that Fiſhery, yet they had taken only five Fiſh among them all.

Briſtol, Aug. 31. On Thurſday laſt was executed, at the Guild-hall, an Inquiry of Damages, in an Action depending in the Court of King's Bench, between an eminent Merchant of this City, Plaintiff, and Mr. Harry Smith, Defendant, for taking the Plaintiff by the Noſe; when the Jury, upon a full Hearing of the Matter, gave the Plaintiff a Farthing Damages.

Goſport, Aug. 30. The Portmahon, ſtationed at New-England, and the Experiment at Ireland, are ſail'd thro' the Needles.

Whitehall, Sept. 3. The King has been pleaſed to appoint Robert Monckton, Eſq; to be Lieutenant-Governor of the Garriſon of Annapolis-Royal in America.

LONDON.

Sept. 4. Yeſterday Morning at Six a Clock, William Mildway, Eſq; Commiſſary from the Crown of England to the Court of France, ſet out from Pall-mall on his Return to Paris, where he will arrive with the utmoſt Expedition.

Sep. 7. We hear that Edmond Offley, of Norton in Derbyſhire, lately deceaſed, has left, by his Will, his whole Eſtate of 2000l. per Annum to Mr. Ker, Miniſter of the Engliſh Chapel in Edinburgh, in whoſe Houſe he lodged.

They write from Cornwall, that the Smuggling Trade flouriſhed in the North Part of that Country, more than was ever known in the Memory of Man, inſomuch that French ſpirituous Liquors are ſo plenty as to be drank muzzled with Cyder, inſtead of ſmall Beer; and that France and Guernzey have almoſt drained the Country of its Money (except the bad Half-pence, which the Smugglers complain the French won't take) for Brandy, Rum, Tea and Tobacco, Luxuries of Life which were never known to be more uſed than at this Juncture.

In a Letter from Holland we have an Account, that the French Squadron commanded by M. Galiſſoniere, which ſailed ſome Time ago from the Port of Toulon, has actually appeared before Algiers, and having demanded Reſtitution of a French Veſſel which a Corſair had taken, the ſame was immediately reſtored; but as his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty demands a greater Satisfaction for the Inſult offered to his Flag, than the bare Reſtitution, the Squadron remains ſtill within Sight of that Port.

We hear from Vienna, that the Empreſs, in order to encourage the Art of Printing within her Dominions, has leſſened the Duty on Paper imported, and greatly augmented thoſe on Books brought from Foreign Countries.

According to Advices from Paris of the 16th Inſtant, the Duke de Mirepoix, ſince his Arrival there from London, has had ſeveral Conferences with M. Rouille, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs about the Differences between England and France, reſpecting the Affairs of America. They are ſtill perſuaded that theſe Matters cannot be adjuſted without a new Arrangement, which ſhall fix the Limits of the two Crowns in that Part of the World. Meſſieurs Duvelaer, ſay they, remain in London, not only to make an End of the Convention on the Tapis, between the two India Companies, but alſo becauſe they are charged to proſecute ſome other Affairs, about which the Duke de Mirepoix has often conferred with the Britiſh Miniſtry.

We hear that the Cauſe ſo long depending between the Hon. Mr. Anneſley, and the Right Hon. the Lord Angleſey, is re-commenced, and will be heard next Term, when it is thought a final Iſſue will be made in that Affair.

Sept. 10. By Advice from Yarmouth, the whole Fleet of the Society's Buſſes (one excepted, which is expected every Hour) was ſafely arrived at Southwold, from the Shetland Fiſhery.

A rich Copper Mine has been lately diſcovered about five or ſix Miles to the Weſtward of Edinburgh, at a Place called Lympoy, belonging to Mr. Scot, of Manley, which the Undertakers have already begun to work with Succeſs.

On Monday laſt a pretended Preacher, and his Clerk, were apprehended at Edmonton, and committed to Priſon by Juſtice Galliard, for ſtealing a Pair of Gloves belonging to, and out of the Houſe of the Worſhipful Juſtice Spurling, of the ſame Place. The pretended Parſon and his Clerk were begging Small Beer of the Servant Maid at the Door, and while ſhe was gone down Stairs to draw it, they ſlipt into the Parlour, and were got on a Chair, and began to preach the Goſpel to the Servant Maid, who immediately called the Coachman and Footman, who ſeized them, and had them before the Bench of Juſtices, who were then ſitting. On their being ſearched, his Worſhip's Gloves were found in the Parſon's Breeches. The Parſon was in Black, and committed to New Priſon, where he was very well known, and his Clerk was committed to Bridewell, and has but one Eye. They ſaid they were going to Hertford to preach the Light.---But, when arrived at the Place of Confinement, beſought the Goaler to enlighten their Darkneſs.

There is Advice that the Heads of the Six Indian Nations had met the Engliſh Deputies at Albany, and renew'd the Treaties with them, and that they had determin'd to take up the Hatchet againſt the French and their Allies, to drive them out of their Country, and deſired the Aſſiſtance of the Engliſh for that Purpoſe.

There are Accounts in Town from Virginia, That, in the late Action there, the whole of our Men were ſurrounded and made Priſoners, and obliged to ſign twelve Articles; the two Firſt of which are, That they ſhall not bear Arms againſt the French for a Year, and that the French Priſoners formerly taken, ſhall be ſet at Liberty; for the Performance whereof Capt. Van Braam and Capt. Robert Stobo are left as Hoſtages. What gives the greateſt Uneaſineſs is, a Report that an Order from the Governor of Quebeck to ſurvey the Heads of Potowmack River on both Sides, by Canoes or otherways, was found in the Offiter's Pocket who was formerly made Priſoner.

Sept. 11. We are well informed, that ſome conſiderable Changes and Removals will take Place before the Meeting of the Parliament.

Sept. 12. Some Time ſince, ſeven Quarry-men in the Iſland of Portland, being at Work on a Cliff 96 Yards high, to looſen a large Stone with Iron Levers, the Ground on a ſudden gave Way, and they all fell to the Bottom on a Heap of Rubble: Four of them were beat all to Pieces, but the other three providentially were only bruiſed, and are recovered; theſe felt the Rock going at the Time, and gave a Spring forwards.

September 12. Private Letters from Madrid inſinuate, that the King's Reſolution to order the Marquis to be ſeized, and his Conduct enquired into, was occaſioned by the Affliction and Murmurs of his Subjects, owing to the Weight of the Impoſts and Scarcity of Proviſions; contrary to his Intentions. His Majeſty has ordered the Miniſter of the Finances to diſcharge the Debts contracted by his Father; and in Conſideration of the extreme Poverty to which his Subjects are reduced, which hinders them from the proper Improvement of their arable and paſture Land, has remitted to his People all that they now owe to the Crown, or ſhall owe at the End of this Year, under the Title of Impoſt or Contribution.

Sept. 14. It appears by ſome of the laſt Letters from Virginia, that the Forces ſent by the Governor of Canada to invade the Back of that Colony, amount to 2200 regular Troops, which are divided into three Bodies; and it ſeems it was the ſtrongeſt Diviſion that attacked the Troops under Colonel Waſhington.

By private Accounts from Virginia, we hear, that since the Defeat or Retreat of the Forces under Colonel Washington, divers Planters of the most westerly Parts of the Colony, have abandoned their Lands, and are removed towards the East for Safety.

They write from Lisbon, that an Advice-boat arrived from Rio de Janeiro, brings the unacceptable News, that the strong Castle of St. Sebastian blew up lately, no Body knows how; and that Ships are loading with Ammunition and military Stores, to supply the Loss occasioned by that Accident.

Some Letters from Lisbon tell us, that the true Cause of M. de la Ensenada's Disgrace, was the accidental falling of some Dispatches from Naples into the Hands of Mr. Wall, who carried them directly to the King. Two Shallops are totally lost, one of which drove to Sea with a few Goods, but no People, on board. The Brig and a few of the Shallops are got off, and 'tis hoped those remaining on Shore will be saved also.

WILLIAMSBURG, October 18.

Yesterday the General Assembly of this Colony met at the Capitol, in this City, when his Honour the Governor opened the Session with the following SPEECH.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

I ONCE more call you together, to consult on the dangerous Situation of your Country, from the unjustifiable Invasion and Encroachments of the French; and I am in Hopes, that during your short Recess, you have seriously considered the miserable Circumstances of your Affairs, and, in Course, the absolute Necessity of granting immediate, considerable, and adequate Supplies, to enable me to put a Stop to their injurious Designs, and to drive them from his Majesty's Lands upon the Ohio.

I have the Pleasure to acquaint you, that his Majesty, considering the pernicious Measures taken by the French, and the great Regard he bears for his Subjects in these Colonies, has been graciously pleased to send me Ten Thousand Pounds, Sterling, in Specie, and also to order from his Royal Stores, Two Thousand Stand of Arms, with their proper Accoutrements, which I daily expect the Arrival of, for your Aid and Use.

Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

The distinguished Marks of his Majesty's paternal Care for his Subjects in these Colonies; his Solicitude for their Safety; and his earnest Desires to defeat the Designs of the French, I hope will raise in you a just Sense of Duty and Gratitude to the best of Kings, and engage your more effectual Attention to his Majesty's repeated Commands for granting Supplies.

The Voice of Nature, Gentlemen, and what you are sensible is among the most prevailing Motives of human Actions, your own Interest, loudly call on you with the most urging Emphasis, to rouse from your Inactivity, and assert their Rights.

And can you continue deaf to such Intreaties? Shall your Posterity, groaning under the galling Yoke of civil and religious Slavery, despoiled of every Thing that renders Life desirable, amidst their Despondence, find their Misery still aggravated by reflecting on the Cause? That their own Progenitors, who might have transmitted to them inviolated, the Liberties, the Properties, and the pure Religion that they enjoyed; by a Supineness and Neglect, as unaccountable as it was unnatural, suffered all to be taken from them?

Gentlemen, The Eyes of his Majesty, his Ministry, nay, of all your Fellow-Subjects, are fixed on your present Determinations. I wish I had Words strong enough to convey to you the absolute Necessity there is at this Time for a generous Supply; but Words cannot be so strong as Facts. Consider what the Enemy have done, and what they further threaten to do; and I am convinced that is sufficient to raise the Spirit of every British Subject to an immediate Resentment, and thorough Resolution, with their Lives and Fortunes, to repel the impending Ruin.

Let me prevail with you then, Gentlemen, to prevent Evils, that, but in Prospect, must affect every serious Considerer with Horror; and be persuaded to exert the true Spirit of Patriotism, and convince the World that no Motive can impede, or any Consideration whatever obstruct, the great and important Business now recommended to your serious Consideration.

It is at this Time that, by an Exertion of your Strength, you may answer the Expectation of his Majesty, promote the Interest of Great-Britain, secure the Peace and Happiness of your Country, and by a brave, vigorous and united Effort, entirely defeat the Machinations of France, the ancient Enemy of Great-Britain, and the Disturber of Mankind.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

At this critical Juncture, I sincerely recommend to you Harmony and Unanimity, ever propitious to publick Counsels, never more indispensably necessary than on this Occasion. Let all Cavils and Disputes subside, and cordially unite in concerting the most suitable Measures to be pursued in the present evident Emergency. For my Part, I do assure you that I will, with the greatest Pleasure, join with you in every Step you take for these just and salutary Purposes, agreeable to my Instructions.

October 21, 1754.

To the Honourable ROBERT DINWIDDIE, Esq; his Majesty's Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia:

The Humble ADDRESS of the Council.

SIR,

WE his Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Virginia, now met in General Assembly, beg Leave to return your Honour our most sincere and hearty Thanks for your very affectionate and pathetic Speech at the Opening of this Session.

We have seriously reflected on the dangerous Situation of our Country, from the unjustifiable Invasion and Incroachments of the French; and a deep Sense thereof will determine us to pay all due Attention to the important Business your Honour has been pleased to recommend to our Consideration.

His Majesty's paternal Regard for these Colonies, the generous Aid he has been pleased to grant towards enabling us to repel the destructive Machinations of the Enemy, demand our most grateful Acknowledgments; and we should think ourselves unpardonable if, at this perilous Juncture, we rendered it useless and abortive, by an ill-timed Parsimony, or failed, by suitable Supplies, to make it adequate to our present Exigences.

Your Honour may therefore rely on our Assurance of heartily concurring with the House of Burgesses, in all such Measures as shall be thought necessary for advancing his Majesty's Service, the Interest of the American Colonies, and for defeating the injurious Designs of France, the antient Enemy of Great-Britain, and the Disturber of Mankind.

By these Means we hope to secure our Liberties, Properties and Religion; and to preserve the numerous Blessings we enjoy, to ourselves and our Posterity.

In an Affair of such vast Importance, we assure your Honour, that we will proceed with that Harmony and Unanimity, which is ever propitious to publick Counsels, and most indispensibly necessary on this Occasion.

We acknowledge, with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude, your Honour's constant and unwearied Application in the Defence and Support of his Majesty's undoubted Rights, in promoting the true Interest and Prosperity of this Country, and for your Readiness to join, with the greatest Pleasure, in every Step conducive to these just and salutary Purposes.

To which his Honour was pleased to return the following ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Council,

I SINCERELY thank you for your kind and affectionate Address. It gives me great Pleasure to observe your grateful Acknowledgment, and true Sense of his Majesty's paternal Regard for our Safety, in granting us so generous Supplies; and of your Determination of concurring with the House of Burgesses, for his Majesty's Service, and the Interest of his American Colonies.

The proceeding, at this Time, with Harmony and Unanimity, I doubt not, will be a Means of defeating the wicked Designs of our Enemies.

I, with Pleasure, shall continue in doing every Thing in my Power for the Service of his Majesty, and of this Dominion, and that with the greatest Alacrity, while I have your Advice and Approbation.

To the Honourable ROBERT DINWIDDIE, Esq; his Majesty's Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia:

The Humble ADDRESS of the House of Burgesses.

SIR,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgesses of Virginia, now met in General Assembly, beg Leave to return your Honour Thanks for your Speech to the Council, and this House, at the Opening of this Session.

The Assistance that his Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant to the Subjects of this Colony, against the pernicious Attempts of the French, hath justly excited in us the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude for this his paternal Regard.

The Welfare of our Country, as it is indeed a natural Inducement, so it hath been ever the only governing Motive in all our Resolutions, however illy they have been represented. And your Honour may be assured, that we will continue to proceed with such Unanimity and Concord amongst ourselves, as may render our Consultations, for the Publick Good, conducive to that truly wise and salutary End.

Being thus fully persuaded of the Justice of our own Endeavours, we flatter ourselves, Sir, that our Proceedings in every Case, will be such an undeniable Testimony to Posterity of our strict Attachment to their Rights and Properties, that should they ever be so unhappy as to groan under the galling Yoke of civil and religious Oppression, it could not be the Effect of any Inactivity, Supineness, or Neglect in us the faithful Guardians of their Liberties.

To which his Honour was pleased to return the following ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

I THANK you for your Address, and the grateful Acknowledgment of his Majesty's paternal Care in granting Assistance to you in these Times of Danger.

Let Openness of Heart, mutual Confidence, and a Delight for the Prosperity of your Country, increase our Happiness; and I doubt not you will now consult the most essential Methods to extricate ourselves from the threatened Ruin intended by our Enemies.

And I sincerely wish and desire that generous Benevolence, Love and Friendship, may be the prevailing Principles of all your publick Transactions.

Oct. 25. Last Saturday Evening arrived here his Excellency, HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor of Maryland; who, we hear, has a Commission from his Majesty as Commander in Chief of the Forces that are, or may be raised to defend the Frontiers of this, and the neighbouring Colonies, and to repel the unjustifiable Invasion and Incroachments of the French, on the River Ohio; and that his Excellency intends to set out very shortly, to take this Command upon him, Yesterday his Excellency Arthur Dobbs, Esq: set out from this City for his Government of North-Carolina.

And last Friday arrived at Hampton, his Majesty's Ship Shoreham, Capt. Julian Legge, from New-York, and has brought with him the Money granted by that Province, for the Protection of Virginia against the French.

ANNAPOLIS, October 31.

On Wednesday last Week, at the Beginning of the South East Storm, a Boat with Passengers, attempting to go across the Mouth of South River, fill'd and sunk, by which Accident Anne Hogan, one of the Passengers, very big with Child, was drowned: Her Husband, and the rest of the People, held by the Boat's Mast till they were reliev'd by another Boat which happened to be near them. Her Body was found last Tuesday on Thomas's Point.

We have a certain and melancholy Account of the Loss of the Snow Beaumont, Capt. James Hovell, who sail'd out of South River, loaded with Tobacco, last Month. She sounder'd soon after she left the Capes, and Capt. Hovell and all the People perish'd, except three, who were some Time after taken off the Wreck, and brought into Virginia. There was very little of the Tobacco insured.

BOSTON, October 28.

A Person from Plymouth informs, that Capt. Dogget was arrived there from Antigua, who about a Fortnight ago, came up with a Sloop bound to Piscataqua, from the Coast of Africa, with 30 Slaves on board, that were in great Distress for want of Provisions: He kept near them three Days, but the fourth, the Wind blowing very fresh, they parted, and he saw nothing of them afterwards.

We hear that a Sloop from Rhode-Island, Benjamin Gorham Master, was drove ashore at Scituate, in the Storm we had on Friday last; but the Cargoe received no considerable Damage.

In Capt. M'Daniel, from London, came Passenger, the famous Elizabeth Canning, well recommended to several People of Honour and Credit: The remarkable Case between her and Mary Squires, a Gipsey, in England; the different Examinations, Trial, and Sentences thereupon, of which Mention has been made from Time to Time in the publick Prints, has puzzled some of the greatest Politicians in Great-Britain.

We hear that a Sailor came to Town last Night from Rhode-Island, who blonged to a Ship bound from the Coast of Africa, but last from one of the West-India Islands, to South-Carolina, but in her Passage was struck with Lightning, which set the Ship on Fire, and consumed her, with 14 of the People out of 30, among which were the Capt. whose Name was Lewis, and the Mate; the Remainder took to the Boat, and after a considerable Time got to Rhode-Island.

Last Tuesday, being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, it was observed here by the Discharge of the Cannon at Castle William, and the Batteries of this Town and Charles-Town, with other Demonstrations of Loyalty and Joy.

NEW-YORK, November 4.

Capt. Burrows arrived here Yesterday Week, from the Havannah, in 24 Days, gives us the following Intelligence, viz. That on the 28th of April last he sailed from Coracoa, in the Sloop Polly, belonging to Philadelphia, bound to Georgia, and on the 21st of May following, in a strong N. E. Gale, he was forced on a Ledge of Rocks called Cajo Romano, about 22 Leagues from Porto Prince, on the Island of Cuba: That after the Vessel struck, himself, together with his Owner, Mr. Griffiths, of Philadelphia, and Crew, finding it impossible to save her, quitted her, and got safe on Shore in the Long Boat: That a Schooner from Porto Prince bound to the Havannah, put into the Place where they landed three Days after, and refused to carry them down, but left a Pilot to convoy them to Porto Prince: That in their Way to that Place, the Pilot, under Pretence of keeping their Boat a Float at Times when they landed, at length push'd her off in earnest, and left the Englishmen entirely destitute of Sustenance, what little they had being on board: That four Days after, observing his Boat at a Distance, he made a Float of Logs, and went to her, when the Spaniard endeavour'd to excuse himself for leaving them so abruptly, and assured them of being safely convoy'd to Porto Prince, where they arriv'd soon after, and were ordered to close Confinement, being first strip'd of all their Cloaths, and allow'd but little or no Provisions: That they remain'd in that Condition ten Weeks, when they were remov'd to the Havannah, and there again put in Goal: That Mr. Griffiths and himself were soon after examined before the Governor, and ordered to Lodgings; and that the former had commenc'd an Action at the Havannah against the Governor of Porto Prince, for the Detention of 391 Pistoles which he deposited in his Hands for its better Security; and which he assured Mr. Griffiths to return upon Demand; but refused, alledging, That as the Pistoles were Spanish, he intended to make the Property likewise such: That the Governor of the Havannah promised to use his Endeavours for the Recovery of the Money; and that Mr. Griffiths died soon after through the Fatigue and ill Usage he had met with. Capt. Burrows's Crew were afterwards releas'd.

One of Capt. Guilford's Men, who were thrown overboard by Don Fernando the 30th of August last, on the Coast of Florida, and had a Vira Perro pronounced over them, providentially got safe to the Havannah, where he now is.

Our Advices received from the Havannah since our last are, that the Bay of Honduras is taken at the sole Expence of his Catholick Majesty, and not by a Company of Merchants, as was imagined; but that as soon as it is properly fortified, is to be given to a particular Company in Spain; who are to settle and improve the Works already begun there, and impede all Englishmen from ever getting any Footing in that Part of the Word for the future.

The same Advices add, that Capt. Flanagan, in a Boston Schooner, was taken on the 4th of June last, going down to the Bay; and that Captain Furlong, late of the Schooner Catherine of this Port, (not long since taken by the Spaniards in the Bay) died on his Passage from Mahoo to the Havannah.

On Saturday last his Majesty's Letters Patent passed the Great Seal, incorporating certain Persons by the Name of the Governors of the College of the Province of New-York, in the City of New-York, in America; and impowering them to make, "Such "Laws, Ordinances and Orders, for the better Government of "the said College and Students, and Ministers thereof, as they "shall think best for the general Good of the same, so that they "are not repugnant to the Laws and Statutes of that Part of the "Kingdom of Great-Britain, called England, or of the said Province of New-York; and do not extend to exclude any Person "of any religious Denomination whatever, from equal Liberty "and Advantage of Education, or from any the Degrees, Liber"ties, Privileges, Benefits or Immunities of the said College, on "Account of his particular Tenets in Matters of Religion." As the Desire of several of our Readers, we have given the Publick the Perusal of thus much of this Charter, hoping it may remove the Prejudices that have been industriously instilled into the Minds of some People, against a Work so apparently calculated for the Benefit of Persons of every religious Denomination, and so consistent with our happy Constitution.

PHILADELPHIA, November 7.

On Friday last the Vessel, mention'd in our last to have been seen at the Capes, with the People of the Charming Polly on board, that had been cast away, came up to Town, and prov'd to be Captain Morrell, and his Hands, of this Port, inward bound from Newfoundland; who inform'd us, That in his Passage, on the Eighth ult. in Lat. 38 40 North, and Long. 66 West from London, having a fresh Gale at N. N. E. and a great Sea, the Ship sprung a Leak in her Bow, which both Pumps could scarcely keep clear; but by putting a Sail over the Bow, it stopt it till it split: That they then put over another Sail, which stopt it likewise till they made the Land, but could not get in: That then they bore away for Virginia, when they had a hard Gale of Wind at N. by E. and N. N. E. which also prevented their getting in there; and their Sail over the Bow being gone, they unbent their Sails from the Yards, and put them over, all which split as soon as put over: And that on the Fourteenth they ran her ashore in North-Carolina, a little to the Southward of Currituck Inlet, to save their Lives, having seven Feet Water in the Hold.

By Captain Punter, from Jamaica, there is Advice, that on the 18th of September they had a severe Storm of Wind and Rain there, which lasted for some Days, and did considerable Damage to the Island in general, but particularly to the North Side, where it is said, several Vessels were drove ashore, and some lost; and that their Plantain-Trees, Corn, &c. had suffer'd much.

Captain Brown, from Leoganne, advises, that on the 17th of September they had also a violent Gale of Wind there, by which eleven Sail of Vessels were drove ashore at St. Louis; and that after the Gale a Ship came into Leoganne, another into Porto Prince, and a third into St. Mark, all dismasted. Capt. Ash, belonging here, was at Leoganne when the Storm began, but put out to Sea, and is since arrived at Jamaica.

Captain Salter, from North-Carolina, says, that the Captains Dinge and Atkinson were arrived there from this Place.

Extract of a private Letter from a Gentleman in Virginia, dated October 31, 1754.

"Our Assembly have been sitting since the 17th. The latest Accounts from thence say, that the Lower House had passed a Bill for £20,000, to be paid at Five Shillings per Poll, Two Shillings whereof payable in April next."

Since our last Capt. Ham arrived here from Holland with Palatines.

Monday last a Fire broke out in a House in the Jerseys, opposite to Wicacoa, which entirely consumed the same. The greatest Part Wilmington, October 15, 1754.

RUN away from Amos Jones, master of the ship Recovery, of Wilmington, an apprentice lad, named Thomas King, about 18 years of age, he is short, well-set, and bow legged, clear grey eyes, and large nose, pretty much marked with the small-pox. Whoever secures the said Apprentice, so that his master may have him again, shall have Five Shillings reward. All masters of vessels and others, are desired not to ship or carry him off, as they will be proceeded against according to law. ¶ AMOS JONES.

Lancaster, September 30, 1754.

RUN away last night from the subscribers, living in conestogoe township, Lancaster county, two servant men, one is a Dutchman, named Jacob Houber, about 25 years of age, five feet high, has black hair, and is of a very yellow complexion: Had on, and took with him, when he went away, a new felt hat, coarse shirt, an ash colour'd coat, a short striped cotton jacket, with trowsers of the same, pale blue worsted stockings, and old shoes. The other is an Irishman, named John Bragan, about 25 years of age, 4 feet 8 inches high, has light brown hair, a red beard, a small scar under his left eye, and can speak a little Dutch: Had on, and took with him, when he went away, an half-worn fine hat, two shirts, one fine and the other coarse, a half-worn brown coat, a short brown jacket, an ash colour'd worsted one, tow trowsers, with breeches under them, coarse dark stockings, and old shoes; they likewise took an ash colour'd great coat and a saddle with them, and it is supposed they both have horses with them. As Bragan has formerly lived at Mount holly, in New-Jersey, it is supposed they are gone that way. Whoever takes up and secures said servants, so that their masters may have them again, shall have Forty Shillings, if taken up in this county, if further off, Three Pounds reward, for each, and reasonabe charges, paid by * Isaac Myars, and Jacob Rubely.

THE publick is hereby informed, That John Jones, late assistant to Mr. Dove when in the Academy, has open'd his new School-house, in Front-street, within three doors of Mr. Thomas Wells's ship-wright, where young gentlemen and ladies may be taught reading, writing, arithmetick vulgar and decimal, navigation, and mensuration; as also merchants accounts in the newest and most complete method. The English tongue will be taught to those, whose parents request it, as a language, and delivery in the method pursued by that worthy professor, Mr. Dove, when in the Academy, by which his scholars made such a wonderful Proficiency, and he gain'd so great a fame deservedly.

JOHN JONES.

N. B. An evening school is likewise kept in said place by said Jones, with whom youth may board.

The advertiser does not doubt but that the publick, on considering the methods generally in use amongst the private schoolmasters in this city, will find them lamentably deficient in that most important point of childrens education, reading: He is too modest to impute it to ignorance of the schoolmasters themselves, but supposes they have not considered that branch of learning with that attention it really deserves; he therefore hopes that, as he is endeavouring to do youth service, in a point of Education too much neglected, he shall be encouraged as the nature of the undertaking deserves. Monthly specimens of the scholars proficiency will be given at the said school-house on the third Thursday of every month.

To be SOLD,

A House and lot in Second-street, betwixt the Houses of William Pywell, and William Griffitts, 18 feet front, and 80 deep; the house is 3 stories high, has a kitchen adjoining to it 2 stories high, with a three foot alley, and good cellars under both House and kitchen; there is also a good pump in the yard; the whole subject to a groundrent of 50 Shillings Sterling per annum: The title is indisputable. To be sold likewise a bake-house, on the next lot but one to the above. Any Person inclining to purchase, may have credit for one half, or two thirds of the purchase money, paying interest, and giving security, if required. For further particulars apply to Jonathan Lewis, living on the premises. *

Happy that Pair, and that alone,
Whom Marriage Rites have render'd ONE;
Whose Love's as lasting as their Breath,
And knows no Period but Death!

IN Pursuance of the Request of my Correspondent, who signs himself, D. F. I shall make his Question the Subject of the Entertainment for this Day. The Question, as he has stated it, stands thus, viz. Whether, according to the Laws of Reason and Nature, the Consent of Parents be necessary to render Marriages valid? I shall take upon me to espouse the negative Side, for as I can by no Means comprehend how the Dissent of Parents can invalidate any Marriage, so I am absolutely unable to conceive how their Assent can make it in a peculiar Manner valid in the Eye of Reason, or according to the Laws of God and Nature. Every Man of common Sense must feel in himself, that which no One but himself, and the Omnipotent Being that made him, can know; namely the Bias or Inclination of his own Heart. Every Woman of common Sense must do the same; the inevitable Consequence of which must be, That the Possessor of an Heart can be the only proper Disposer of it. How horrible therefore, and how hellish a Thing is it, that young Creatures should by the Command of austere Parents be dragged to an Altar, where they must be guilty of the blackest Perjury, by declaring before God, That they will love and honour Men, whom they actually detest and despise, while those that ought to protect their Virtue, and promote their Happiness, stand by worse than Panders, and very little better than Accessories to a Rape?

I would by no Means be understood to be disposed to lessen the paternal Authority. No; where and when it ought to be exerted, in the Name of God let it be exerted. But there are Cases, where it is out of the Question, and it is and ought to be so in the Affair of Marriage. A Parent may advise and exhort, on the one Hand, or dissuade on the other; but as for giving Commands with Regard to the Disposal of an Heart, it is a most gross Absurdity, for this plain Reason, that it is absolutely impossible that such Commands should be complied with. You may as well order the Leopard to change his Spots, or the Æthiop his Skin, as command a young Woman, who has taken an Antipathy to a Man, to love and honour him. The Marriage State would never have been so much the Subject of Ridicule, amongst Libertines and Debauchees, as well as amongst Men of a more sober Cast, if the Inclinations of People were coupled at the same time as their Persons. That it is so frequently otherwise can be owing to no other Cause than the undue Exertion of that paternal Authority, and Thousands are made wretched in order to approve themselves dutiful. When two People (says a late Writer) of no Genius or Taste for themselves, meet together, upon such a Settlement as has been thought reasonable by Parents and Conveyancers, from an exact Valuation of the Land and Cash of both Parties: In this Case the young Lady's Person is no more regarded than the House and Improvements in the Purchase of an Estate; but she goes with her Fortune, rather than her Fortune with her. These make up the Croud or Vulgar of the Rich, and fill up the Lumber of human Race, without Beneficence to those below them, or Respect towards those above them; and lead a despicable independent and useless Life, without Sense of the Laws of Kindness, Good-nature, mutual Offices, and the elegant Satisfactions, that flow from Reason and Virtue. This is a most contemptible, insipid Situation; but far worse is it, when two People of Dispositions in all Respects diametrically opposite are by their Parents or Guardians condemned to one another. A State of more compleat Misery cannot possibly be conceived; and a Man or Woman might almost as well be possessed by a Devil, as be forced to take to their Bosoms the perpetual Cause of their Discontent.

There are no Sort of Bargains driven,
Nor Marriages made up in Heaven:
And that's the Reason, as some guess,
There is no Heaven in Marriages.

It is the Driving of Bargains between one Father and another that is the Fountain and Foundation of all connubial Misery; and if Persons were permitted to make Use of that Freedom of Choice, which by all the Laws of God and Nature they have a Right to, we should scarce hear of such a Thing, as an unhappy Marriage. Sir Thomas Moore in his Utopia treats of Marriage under the Article of Slavery; and well may it be deemed such a State, when either the Man is a Tyrant, or the Woman a Virago. But certain Parents, who consider themselves as Sovereigns, and their Children as Subjects, bound at all Events to fulfil their Pleasure, and promote their Ends, never consider the Temper and Disposition of the Minds of such as they select for the Husbands or Wives of their own Flesh and Blood; but the only Questions are about the Family and Fortune, both of which are so far from being essential to Happiness, that People may be most deplorably wretched with the highest Dignity of the one, and the greatest Accumulation of the other. I never met with a stronger Contrast than I did about a Year ago in two Letters I received from two old College Acquaintances. The one had just married a fine young Lady for Love, the other a Gentlewoman somewhat advanced in Years, for the Sake of her Money. It will be very easy to judge from the different Stiles of these Epistles, which of the two was the happiest Man. It will be proper to add, that the latter Match was by universal Consent of Friends, but the Lovers had consulted No-body but their own Hearts. The Letters were in Substance as follows.

To THOMAS TOUCHIT, Esq;

Dear TOM,

It is with inexpressible Pleasure that I now inform you that the beauteous Hariotte is at length my own. Yesterday was the happy Day that united us for ever, and which made me Master of the most inestimable Treasure in the World. I just now left the blushing Angel to take an Opportunity of communicating my Felicity to you, for blest as I am, I could not think myself perfectly so, till I participated my Transports with my Friend. O my dear Touchit! the Charmer has bound me to her by the double and indissoluble Ties of Love and Gratitude. She refused a Man of Quality, and of a Fortune, that trebles mine, for my Sake. But if all the Affection and Tenderness that ever Man could have for a Woman, can make her any Amends, my adorable Jewel shall have it. Hark! it is her lovely Voice, she calls to me, and I must obey the delightful Summons; so no more at present,

From your faithful,
and thrice happy Friend,
CHARLES B------.

Such was the Stile of the Lover. I shall now present my Readers with the Letter from the other Person, who married for Convenience, and with the Consent of Friends.

Good Mr. TOUCHIT,

I TAKE this Opportunity of letting you know that I was married Yother Day to one Mrs. Jones. The Match was none of my seeking, but I was partly persuaded by her Friends, and partly by mine. To be sure none but Boys and Girls marry for Love, and they run on harum scarum, without considering Consequences. So you must know, I had an Eye principally to the main Chance. I had Two Hundred Pounds a Year with her, besides Four Thousand down, which, if it should please God she should die, will be intirely at my Disposal. She is upon the whole a good Sort of a Woman. Beauty is a Thing I never much minded, and to be sure she is none of your Coventry's nor your Hamilton's; but she is what you may call well enough. Her Temper, as Women go, is so so-ish; she is a little fractious at Times, when her sore Leg pains her, but that soon blows over. I never loved the Squeaking and Squaling of Children, and I am not sorry that she is past all that Sort of Work. I have added a Pair of Horses to the old Chariot, in which, when new painted, we shall go about, and see the Folks. I thank God, I am tolerably contented, and Wife she too is tolerably contented; but you know, there is no such Thing as Happiness here below. I have been consumedly troubled with low Spirits of late, but that Dr. Johnson tells me is owing to my eating Salt Meats. I want to come and see you vastly, but us married Folks cannot always do just as we please, you know.

Yours to serve you,
HUMPHRY P------.

P. S. Wife desires her Respects.

There is no Occasion for any Comment upon these two Epistles; they explain themselves sufficiently. I would not be thought however from what I have said in the Beginning of this Essay to set at Nought the Authority of Parents. It is certainly best, when the Inclinations of Children coincide with the Pleasure and Will of the Parents; but I do insist on it, that no paternal Authority can intitle any Man to destroy the Peace of his Offspring, and how can that be done so effectually as by marrying them against their Wills. It is cruel, it is impious, it is unnatural! In fine, nothing ought to be done which has a Tendency to imbitter that State, which in its Perfection is a Heaven upon Earth.

Hail wedded Love! mysterious Law! true Source
Of human Offspring, sole Propriety
In Paradise, of all Things common else.
By thee adulterous Lust was driven from Men
Among the bestial Herds to range; by thee,
Founded in Reason, loyal, just, and pure,
Relations dear, and all the Charities
Of Father, Son, and Brother, first were known.
Perpetual Fountain of domestick Sweets,
Whose Bed is undefiled, and chaste pronounced,
Present or past, as Saints or Patriarchs used!
Here Love his golden Shafts employs; here lights
His constant Lamp, and waves his purple Wings:
Reigns here, and revels not in the bought Smile
Of Harlots, loveless, joyless, unindeared,
Casual Fruition; nor in Court Amours,
Mix'd Dance or wanton Mask, or Midnight Ball,
Or Serenade, which the starv'd Lover sings
To his proud Fair, best quitted with Disdain.

MILTON.

ROME, August 6.

THE Congregation de Propaganda Fide have received very agreeable Accounts touching the Arrival of the Portugueze Ambassadors, who were sent to China to obtain Leave for the Catholick Missionaries to return to that vast Empire, where they have been long prohibited from setting Foot. The Ambassadors were received very graciously, and the Emperor signified to them, that he would permit the Missionaries to come from Macao to preach the Gospel in any Part of his Dominions.

The Generals of the Religious Orders in Spain have applied to the Pope, soliciting him to employ his good Offices with the Catholick King, to induce his Majesty to shorten the Term prescribed by a late Ordonnance, during which no Person shall be admitted into any Monastery in his Dominions.

Vienna, Aug. 14. The Forests in Hungary having, for many Years past, been very much destroyed, particularly within these two Years, by the Fabrication of Pot-Ashes; our Court has judged it expedient to send Orders to the proper Officers in Hungary, to use such Measures as may be most effectual for the Preservation of the remaining Woods; the low Prices of Pot-Ashes (being under their Value) and the Considerations of the publick Weal, as well as those of War, requiring that the Forests should not be altogether ruined, to the End that our Armies may not fail of having Fewel, and that they may be under Cover from the Enemy.

New-Castle, Aug. 3. On Monday last the Hospital was begun near the Surgeon's Hall at the Foot of the Manor Chair, for accommodating Six poor old Maidens, and the like Number of poor old Batchelors; the Fund for supporting the same being generously subscribed by Sir Walter Blackett, Bart. One of our worthy Representatives, and Alderman of this Corporation, and Thomas Davison, of Ferry-hill, Esq; each having given 1200 l. the Interest of which is to be applied to the charitable Purposes abovementioned. The Foundation Stone was laid by the Right Worshipful Henry Eden, Esq; Mayor, accompanied with several of the principal Gentlemen in Town and Country adjacent. And the Magistrates here, in order to keep the above Sum entire for the Use before signified, have undertaken to be at the Charge of the Building, on the Town's Account. The Workmen had several handsome Presents given them by the Gentlemen present after the Corner Stone was laid, to encourage them to finish the Building well, to drink the Healths of the two principal Benefactors to this Charity, the Magistrates, &c.

Dublin, Aug. 27. It is remarkable, that the Swedes and Danes, whose Countries are the most barren of any in Europe, have been improving in Trade, Arts, Manufactures and Sciences, more than any other Nation in the World; by giving all proper Encouragement to them, and taking away all Monopolies. It is not many Years ago, that Sweden was so very thin of Inhabitants, that all the Agriculture of that Kingdom was carried on by the Women, most of the Men being drained from that Country by Charles XII. for Soldiers, very few of whom ever returned Home: Yet those industrious People now make as great a Figure in Tillage and Manufactures as any other Nation; their Nobility and Gentry, who travel very much, being obliged at their Return to print and publish the best Accounts of their Travels, and of the Methods and newest Improvements in all Kinds of Husbandry and Gardening, and in metallic Works, in all Places beyond the Seas; particularly those of England, and all the Colonies in America; with Draughts of the Plows, Harrows, Furnaces, and Instruments employed for those Purposes. The Swedes too, in Imitation of the rich and political Republicks of Venice and Genoa, ennoble their Merchants, and give them Stars, Garters and Ribbands, to appear as grand and conspicuous as the Nobility, Gentry, and Courtiers of the greatest Empires and Kingdoms. The present King of Denmark is likewise promoting Tillage, Trade, Arts and Sciences; destroying all Monopolies and Bubbles; sending his Nobles, Gentry, and Merchants to all Parts of the known World, to improve their Tillage and Gardening.

Cork, Aug. 29. Fifteen large Fish, called Bottle Nose, were taken this Week, in a Creek near the Cove; one of them measures 27 Feet in Length, 5 in Height, and 15 in Circumference, and the rest are nearly of the same Dimensions.

LONDON.

August 10. They spare no Pains or Expence at present in France to encourage the Arts of Clock and Watchmaking, laying it down as a certain Maxim, that if their Artists can once reach Perfection, they will soon draw to themselves all the Advantages that can possibly result from it as a Trade.

Last Saturday, at the Desire of a Lady of Quality, the Royal Train of Artillery went through all the Parts of their Exercise: The Lady was so extremely well pleased with their Appearance and Performance, that she gave a handsome Gratuity for their Trouble.

A Fellow at Dublin of more Curiosity than Prudence, expressing his Desire of becoming a Free Mason to a Company at an Ale house in Barefoot-street, they assured him they were qualified to admit him into the Fraternity; and as to the Ceremony of Initiation, having first covered his Face, and shaved him from the Navel downwards, they thrust him up the Chimney with a Cat fastened to his Breeches, who liking neither this new Treatment, nor her Companion, began to exercise her Talons in so very sensible a Manner, that he thought proper to apply for Redress to the Justices Office: But his Case appearing without Precedent, he was dismissed with a Friendly Caution to take better Care of his Company and Flesh for the future.

Last Week his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland reviewed Lord Robert Manners's Regiment of Foot, on Bulmarsh Heath, near Reading, which made a very fine Appearance. During the Review his Highness received a smart Kick on his Leg from Col. Conway's Horse, but having on a strong Boot he received but little Injury.

Some honest and well-meaning Patriots express great Concern, that the Liberty of the Press gives Umbrage to the High and Mighty, and are very desirous to know whence this Apprehension proceeds; but a little Observation would quickly shew them, that in so delicate an Age as this, there is nothing can be so Mal-a-propos, or so tormenting, as treating even the Foibles of the Great grossly, and with a rude Impertinence calling, where our Betters may be affected, a Club a Club, and a Spade a Spade. An allegorical Abuse of Religion may have Wit, a smutty Romance may recommend a Man to an Employment; but to expose Vices, Follies, or the Whims of Persons of Rank, or of those who esteem themselves such, is shocking, brutal, and not to be endured.

Sept. 7. The several Accounts from the Danish Missionaries at Tranquebar, and the English Missionaries at Madras, Cudulore, &c. for 1753, in their Letters to the Society for promoting Christian Knowledge in foreign Parts, complain much of the Interruption of their Mission by the Wars in these Parts, being prevented from travelling into the Country with their Catechists, the Country being infested with the plundering Maratteors, who, having the French for their Allies, had molested and harrassed all Places around the Company's Limits at Fort David's.----They also informed the Society, that a Romish Catechist of Tranquebar, being converted, was joined to their Mission.---They complain of the Scarcenss and Dearness of all Kinds of Provisions, occasioned as well by Drought as the War, more especially that of Rice, of which they could scarce procure a necessary Quantity for the Servants, the Children in their Schools, and their Poor, not even for Money. They acknowledge the Receipt of some providential Supplies from unexpected Benefactions, particularly from Mr. Croke, Captain George Gardner, and the Commander of a small trading Vessel on the Coast of Malabar.---The Society are also informed that the Danish Missionaries are going with a Danish Ambassador to Tanshour.

They complain also their Number of Converts have not increased in like Proportion with former Years, by Reason of the Wars and Distresses of the People; besides the Papists have hindred the Furtherance of the Gospel in those Parts, by Contentions between them and the Heathen Natives, in the Town of Tanshour, about Civil or Mercantile Matters, which had provok'd the King of that Country to cast many Christians (without Distinction) into Prison, and to persecute some of them very cruelly, till they should renounce their Religion. Such are the Difficulties of the Missionaries in that Part of the World, notwithstanding the unwearied Pains of the Society to render their Work as comfortable as possible, but as this cannot be done without the Assistance of the Great and Good, it is hoped, and not doubted, but such will contribute their Assistance to the carrying on this Christian Scheme.

Private

A Choice Parcel of FYAL WINE, lately imported; also MELASSES, to be sold by ROBERT GREENMAN, or DANIEL RUNDLE.

Private Persons that have no Families or Relations that depend upon them for Support, may suffer as much Wrong as they please; if a Man smites them on one Cheek, they may fulfil the Gospel literally, and turn the other Cheek, or let him that takes their Cloak, strip them likewise of their Coat: But when Men have Dependents, the Case is altered; Meekness under Injuries becomes Injustice to those whom they ought to protect and provide for; an Affront not properly resented, is an Invitation to fresh Provocations; one Injury tamely pocketed, is an Encouragement for a Repetition; or, according to the French Proverb, Make yourselves Sheep, and the Wolf will devour you.

That ambitious, faithless, restless Nation does, perhaps, now take us for Sheep. Since the Peace of Aix-la-Chapelle they have seen how tamely we let them nestle in the Neutral Islands, in the West-Indies. From our not opposing this Incroachment, they have, probably, been encouraged to invade Virginia, and begin the Execution of a Scheme for ruining all our Northern Colonies.---Between Nations the Patience and Forbearance recommended in the Gospel cannot be practised. If one State makes a just Demand upon another, it ought to be immediately granted; but if the Demand be unjust, it should be instantly denied, and the Point in Dispute be decided by an Appeal to Heaven; and in such Appeals against the French we may reasonably hope for Success, if we set out upon the Plan of doing more for ourselves than for our Allies, and not play the Fool as we have done.

The reigning Humour of encouraging Idleness and frivolous Diversions cannot fail of propagating Indigence and Violence, for Idleness furnishes nothing but a Propensity to spend whatever we derive from the Industry of our Ancestors, and all we can learn from the modish Diversions is, that nothing is now accounted dishonourable, that enables a Man to live at a vast Expence.

But what will be the Consequence of this new Turn? Men of Rank say, they wont reach Us. The Men of Riches, my Follies can't hurt my Estate. The Man of Pleasure, I never think of Consequences. But the plain meaning Country Farmer, the honest industrious Tradesman, the Pains taking working Artisan, has good Reason to consider Consequences. For if Idleness produce nothing, out of their Bones must these inconsiderate People be maintained. Not willingly, without Doubt, for the industrious Part of Mankind are not yet become so stupid; therefore by Violence, of which there are many different Kinds.

An Epigram as old as the Reign of Henry IV.

Heedless the Great, and helpless are the Small,
The middle Folk supply the Needs of All.

Aug. 13. By a private Letter from Madrid we are informed, that the Marquis de la Ensenada so little suspected his Fall, before the Instant it happened, that he was at Supper with the King at the very Time the Guards were waiting to arrest him, which was the very Moment of his quitting the Royal Presence.

Aug. 27. From the Length of modern Negociations one might be apt to conclude, that the Negociators, on one Side or the other, are not Men of clear Heads, or else they set about the Business before they understand it, and so trust to Time and Experience for becoming Masters of it. It is now about four Years since the Conferences were begun at Paris, for settling the Limits between England and France in America; and what Progress has been made in the Affair, let our late Accounts from Virginia declare. A Negociation has also been on Foot above a Twelvemonth between the French and English East-India Companies; and we have so often been told that it was on the Point of being concluded, that One may be allowed to doubt whether it may not last a Year longer.

Sept. 13. The News from North-America must make an Impression on every Mind, that has either the Honour or Interest of Great-Britain at Heart; those who have neither, may laugh at it. The Papers (with commendable Concern) refused to comment on the strange Account transmitted from thence, which however sufficiently shews the Distress of the Colony.

It is amazing that the French, considering the Distance and the Thinness (in Comparison of ours) of their Colonies, should undertake an Expedition, which, unless they knew something more than we do, had so little Appearance of Success, and which even now might be certainly and easily render'd abortive.

But it is still more amazing, considering the Multitudes transported from different Parts of Europe to our Plantations, within twenty Years past, that there was not immediately such a Corps assembled, as might have been capable of giving so rough a Reception to these Invaders, as would have cured them of the Desire of being troublesome for the future; as yet our Relations have been imperfect and indistinct, may they hereafter be more intelligible, more credible, and more worthy of British Americans!

In a few Days the Hon. ---------- Greenville, Esq; Governor of Barbados, will set out on his Return to his Government.

We hear there will be a Million of Money raised by Way of Lottery, for the Service of the Year 1755.

On the 5th Instant, No. 35922 was drawn at the Hague a Prize of 50000 Guilders.

Halifax, in Nova-Scotia, October 19.

On Monday last his Majesty's Royal Commission appointing the Hon. CHARLES LAWRENCE, Esq; late President of his Majesty's Council, and Commander in Chief of this Province, to be Lieutenant-Governor of the said Province, was published at the Court-house; a great Concourse of Gentlemen, and others, being assembled on that Occasion, in whose Countenance an universal Joy was apparent: After which the usual Oaths were administred to his Honour by BENJAMIN GREEN, Esq; now President of the Council; who also then, in the Name of the Council, made a Congratulatory Address.

The next Day the worshipful Justices of the Inferior Court and Justices of the Peace, waited on his Honour with an Address.

And Yesterday the Gentlemen Merchants of Halifax, waited on his Honour with their Address.

October 19. The Honourable Robert Monckton, Esq; one of his Majesty's Council of this Province, and Lieutenant Colonel of General Lascelles's Regiment, is appointed Lieutenant Governor of the Garrison of Annapolis Royal.

The Honourable Jonathan Belcher Esq; Chief Justice of this Province, and the Honourable John Rous, Esq; Captain of his Majesty's Ship Success, now on this Station, are appointed of his Majesty's Council of this Province.

BOSTON, October 29.

Thursday Seven-night in the Evening, the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD reach'd Col. Royal's at Medford, where he lodged; the next Morning he preach'd at Stoneham, and in the Afternoon at Mr. Hobby's at Reading; Saturday he preach'd twice at Salem, in the Morning at Mr. Leavit's, and in the Afternoon at Mr. Sparhawk's; and on the Sabbath he preach'd thrice at Ipswich, twice at Mr. Rogers's, and once at Mr. Walley's; on Monday twice at Newbury, and again on Tuesday Morning: Here he was met with by a Number of his Friends from Piscataqua, and on Tuesday Afternoon, he preach'd at Portsmouth, and twice the next Day. On Thursday he preach'd at York and Kittery, and in the Evening waited on General Pepperell: Friday Morning he return'd back to Portsmouth and preach'd; after which he set out for Greenland, Durham and Exeter, and intended to keep the Sabbath at Newbury, and on Monday to preach thrice, viz. at Rowley, Byfield and Ipswich; and on Tuesday at Cape-Ann: And we hear he intends to be in Town on Wednesday Evening or Thursday Morning.

Nov. 4. Last Week the Tryton Sloop of War arrived at New-Port, Rhode-Island, from Virginia, from thence she was to proceed to New-London in Connecticut.

Yesterday Capt. M'Neal arrived here in a large Ship from New-Castle.

We have the following Account from St. John's, in Newfoundland, of the barbarous Murder of WILLIAM KEEN, Esq; Judge of the Court of Vice-Admiralty in that Island, about 5 Weeks ago:---A Woman, who had been a Servant to Mr. Keen, but was now married to one ---- Power, reported to her Husband, and to 5 Soldiers and 4 Servants, that Mr. Keen had a Quantity of Money by him in the House, to the Amount of Fourteen Thousand Pounds Sterling, and propos'd it to them how they might rob him; and, having sworn them to Secrecy, about Midnight, the Woman, with one Soldier and a Servant, enter'd the House; the rest as Centinels, posted themselves about the House with loaded Muskets to shoot any Person that might disturb them: Searching in the Closet, they found a Box in which they thought there was Money, and accordingly carried it out some Distance from the House, and broke it open, when they found it to contain only some distilled Spirits in Bottles: Being thus disappointed, they return'd again to the House, and two of them enter'd, one a Soldier nam'd Matthew Holloren, with a Musket, the other a Servant to Power, nam'd Timothy Mc Guire, with a Scythe about two Feet long, and having a Candle enter'd the Room where Mr. Keen lodg'd, but making some Noise he awoke and jump'd up in a Surprize, and struck the Candle out; upon which the Soldier struck him with the But-End of the Musket, and then endeavour'd to stifle him with a Bed Quilt; but the other with the Scythe cut him in the Belly in a barbarous Manner, and stab'd him in two or three Places; at which Time two Children in Bed crying out, they made their Escape, and carried off 15 Silver Spoons.---Mr. Keen languish'd about 3 Weeks of his Wounds and then died.---Soon after, Holloren was taken up, and imprison'd for another Robbery, and being closely examined by Mr. Keen's Son, some Circumstances of his being concern'd in the Murder occurring, he at last confess'd the whole:---Upon which they were all taken up, try'd and convicted; and Power with his Wife, Holloren and M'Guire, were executed, and the Bodies of the two last hung up in Chains.--The others are repriev'd till his Majesty's Pleasure is known.

On the 18th ult. died at Carlisle, in the County of Middlesex, and the 21st was decently interred, Eleazer Melven, a Gentleman, who for many Years had been honoured with various Commissions against the Indian Enemy, and was the eldest Captain in the late Expedition to the Eastward; who for his known Courage, which had been prov'd in several warm Engagements, and for his humane Treatment of his Men, was always both fear'd and lov'd by them; and as a Gentleman in private Life thro' the different Parts of it, behaved with great Integrity; and in Justice to his Memory it must be said, that as he was of general Service to his Country, so his Death is by all that knew him, regretted as a publick Loss; and that which crowned all, was his known Integrity and true Zeal to recommend himself to the Favour of the King of Heaven.

PHILADELPHIA, November 14.

Sunday last being the KING's Birth-day, when His MAJESTY enter'd into the Seventy-second Year of his Age, the same was observed here the next Day with the greatest Solemnity. At Noon his Honour the Governor gave an Entertainment on the Occasion at his House in this City: And in the Evening there was a grand Ball at the State-house, at which were present about a Hundred Ladies, and a much greater Number of Gentlemen, who made as brilliant an Assembly as has ever been seen in this Province. All the Company were elegantly entertain'd by his Honour there at Supper in the Long Gallery; after which the loyal Healths were drank; likewise those of the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania, and Prosperity to the Province, &c. and every Thing was conducted with the greatest Decorum, and to general Satisfaction.

Captain Bedlow, from Jamaica, informs us, that Capt. Murray, of this Port, was arrived there, and that he and Capt. Shankland were to sail soon for this Harbour.

On Saturday last several Habits, wore by the Eskemaux Indians, who inhabit the southern Parts of the Labrador, with their Utensils, and other Curiosities, belonging to that People, were delivered by Capt. Swaine into our Library, being a Present from the North-West Company to the Library Company of this City.

On Monday Night, between Seven and Eight a Clock, a Fire broke out in a Stable adjoining a Smith's Shop in Market-street; but there being no Wind, and the Inhabitants giving their immediate Assistance, it was happily extinguish'd, without doing any other Damage than destroying the Place it began in.

Yesterday Capt. Budden arrived here from London, after a tedious Passage of about 12 Weeks. By him there is Advice, That the Whitehill, Capt. Wall, was to sail soon after him for Yarmouth, in order to load with Barley for this Place.

Last Tuesday, the Students in Philosophy, which compose the higher Class in our Academy, deliver'd a Series of publick Exercises before the Trustees. As these Exercises were the first of the Kind in our young Seminary, they drew together a large Audience of Ladies and Gentlemen, particularly his Honor our Lieutenant Governor; his Excellency John Tinker, Esq; Governor of Providence; the Honourable James Hamilton, Esq; our late Governor, with several other Persons of Distinction.

The Exercises were ushered in with a Prologue, which (excepting the Lines mark'd with the inverted Commas) was written by the ingenious young Orator who spoke it. The marked Lines were added or altered by the Hand that wrote the Epilogue, and digested the Whole. After the Prologue, the Exercises were as follows.

1st. On the Advantages of Education in general.

2d. An Enquiry into the several Branches of Education, in order to ascertain the just Importance or Moment of each.

3d. An Address to the Trustees of the Academy, and to his Honor the Lieutenant Governor, &c.

4th. On Logic.

5th. On Method.

6th. On Moral Philosophy.

7th. A Hymn to Philosophy.

The Whole concluded with an occasional Epilogue spoken by Master Billy Hamilton. As he is a Child under nine Years of Age, and spoke it with a great Deal of Humor and Propriety, it gave inexpressible Satisfaction to the Audience.

The Prologue and Epilogue are subjoined; and the Exercises will be publish'd in our future Papers, by particular Desire, as they form a regular Treatise on the Sciences.

PROLOGUE

To PHILOSOPHICAL EXERCISES at Philadelphia, November 12, 1754, spoken by Mr. JACOB DUCHE.

"SHE comes! she comes! ye Nine, strike every String,
"Till yonder Arch with Gratulation ring!
"From distant Realms, Philosophy serene,
"The Heaven-taught Nurse of ev'ry Muse's Strain,
"Exultant, comes, to seek a calm Retreat,
"And make this hallow'd Dome her chosen Seat.*
Hail sacred Wisdom! Progeny divine!
Awful we bend at thy unspotted Shrine!
Thy lofty Precepts raise th' exulting Soul,
The Passions ballance, and the Will controul;
The virtuous Thought they rear, and warm the Heart
For Freedom, Truth and each ennobling Art.
O! while our raptur'd Strains to thee aspire,
One Spark impart of thy celestial Fire!
†You who in polish'd Arts and Merit shine
The kind Protectors of the sacred Nine,
Whose Patriot-Toils, your Country's Pride and Grace,
Build up her Fame on Virtue's lasting Base;

* The Academy. † The Trustees.

To you our first Essays in Prose belong,
Be you the Patrons of our early Song.
"For many a joyless Age, from eldest Times,
"Barbarian Darkness, o'er these hapless Climes
"Lour'd horrible, with Raven-Wing display'd,
"And wrapt them, Death-like, in her baleful Shade.
"Witness ye Hills, and every conscious Wood!
"Witness ye Dales, and each meandring Flood!
"Nay witness ev'n ye Stones that strew the Plain,
"Long did ye mourn her unrelenting Reign!"
At last, illustrious Worthies! you appear'd,
In modest Elegance, these Walls were rear'd;
"SCIENCE you call'd to chace the Train of Night;
"The GODDESS hears---descends---and all is Light!"
Rome's ample Treasures soon our Care engage,
With all the Labors of the Grecian Sage.
But vain their Treasures, all their Labors vain;
Their Sense unnotic'd, and unfelt their Strain.
Fruitless we search the Greek and Roman Page,
Without the Critic's Skill, and Poet's Rage;
Their Morals wrapt in Fable, useless, lie;
Lost are their Beauties to the wilder'd Eye.
Yet here, your active Zeal in Learning's Cause,
Permits not Genius uninform'd to pause.
Fearless you bid your daring Pupils soar,
And Heights of Science yet untry'd explore;
While chosen Guides, whose Worth ev'n Envy tells,
Point up th' Ascent, where Fame with Virtue dwells.
By such Examples rous'd, the sounding Lyre
We grasp, and catch the soaring Pindar's Fire.
Each ancient Author's Sterling Worth is known,
And all their varied Beauties made our own.
To Nature's Works the searchful Eye we bend,
And learn each diff'rent Being's Cause and End.
In pleasing Converse each returning Day
Flies thus improving and improv'd away.

EPILOGUE to the same;

Spoken by Master BILLY HAMILTON.

LADIES! there's something happen'd now so queer,
You'll scarce believe it------what! already sneer?
If that's the Case before the Joke comes out,
When it appears, you'll split your Sides I doubt.
These grave Philosophers, lac'd stiff in Rules,
And all the learned Lumber of the Schools,
Have paid their Court, with many an awkward Bow,
To all the Great, and all the Good-----but YOU.
At length, howe'er, convinc'd of their Transgression,
It was resolv'd to mount, and make Confession.
But lo! one shakes his Head-----so grave his Trade is,---
He ne'er had learn'd to make a Leg to Ladies.
One cannot stand the Splendor of your Eyes;
Another at a VAN-DYKE faints----or dies.
Thus all come off-----and on the dear Employ
The bearded Fools are glad to send-----a Boy.
Well! you might hang Philosophy for Billy,
If to my Best it made me thus look silly.
But now I'm come!-----the Question's what to say,
Or what to call the Produce of the Day?
Tragic or Comic, there is no discerning;-----
'Tis all in all, they think to shew their Learning-----
Perhaps they shew it-----but you shew what's better,
Much Sense, GoodBreeding, Sweetness and Good-nature,
Patient so long to hear such crabbed Matter.
'Tis gen'rous that, with your applauding Smile,
To fire their Souls for Fame, and sooth their Toil.
When some few Years have ripen'd them in Knowledge,
And Time subdues the Stiffness of the College,
In humble Gratitude-----they bid me say-----
For all your kind Indulgence shewn To-day
They'll act for You-----some more engaging Play.

PHILOSOPHICAL EXERCISES.

Enquiry into the reſpective Moment, or Value, of the SEVERAL BRANCHES of SCIENCE, continued from our laſt; with an ADDRESS to the TRUSTEES of the Academy, and to his Honor the GOVERNOR.

Deliver'd by JOSIAH MARTIN.

IT WAS with good Reaſon that he, who ſpoke laſt, conſider'd thoſe Sciences, commonly called the Speculative, together with ſome univerſal Language, or Languages, as liberal Accompliſhments, and a neceſſary Introduction to ſolid Learning. This agrees exactly with the Judgment of the wiſeſt Ancients, who never placed theſe Accompliſhments in any er Light, than that in which we have placed them in theſe Exiſes.

PLATO denominates MATHEMATICS, a previous Education, or lude to PHILOSOPHY. He alſo phraſes them the Steps or Aſcents, which Men mount up to the Knowledge of ſublime Things. PRO-US ſtiles them the Way or Means of Education. XENOCRATES le them the Handles of Philoſophy. And the learned MACLAURIN s, that Natural Philoſophy is chiefly valuable, as it lays a ſure undation for NATURAL RELIGION, or MORAL PHILOSOPHY. THE ANCIENTS, we are told by themſelves, employed their ole Studies in Languages, Mathematics and Philoſophy. The two mer were inſtilled into their Youths at School. The latter exiſed the Contemplations of the more Aged, in their public alks, or ſecret Retirements.

INDEED it is ſufficiently plain, in the very Nature of Things, t this Method, and the Judgment we have pronounced upon it, juſt. After we have got the neceſſary Helps, we ought to ake uſe of them; and there is certainly a Time when we ſhould s from Words to Things---from the Head to the Heart.

THOUGH Languages and the ſpeculative Sciences are excellent lps, and highly valuable on that Account, as we hinted before; t they are only Means, and not to be acquired by all; and there-re the Acquiſition of them cannot be conſidered as a Duty or d. But a SOUND MORAL STATE is an End for which we were ade by the DEITY; and as it is required of all, ſo a competent nowledge in Morality is certainly attainable by all, that will make e of their Reaſon, without any of theſe Helps.-----Human Afrs might ſubſiſt in a tolerable good State, without the abovementioned adventitious Aids; but without thoſe Tempers, Diſpoſi-ns and Actions, which are enforced by MORALITY, and RELI-ION, we ſhould be unqualified for the Enjoyment of our Supreme appineſs here, as well as hereafter.

IF THEN, Truth, Duty and Happineſs, ought to be the ULTI-ATE END of all our Purſuits, whatever Studies lead us immeately to the Acquiſition of them, muſt be ſupremely worthy of s, as Men. Conſidered in this Light we will not ſcruple to place OGIC, MORAL PHILOSOPHY and RHETORIC, at the Head of all ther Arts and Sciences, as the Meaſure or Standard of their Utility. he Juſtneſs of this Preference and Diviſion will further appear, om the ſlighteſt Attention to the Structure of Human Nature.

ALL the various Powers or Principles of the Mind, pointing to appineſs, may be reduced to two Claſſes, thoſe of the UNDER-TANDING, and WILL. The Object of the former is Truth, and f the latter Good. Now,

1. LOGIC teaches us the right Conduct of the Underſtanding in earching after TRUTH, which is the great Source of the intellectual leaſures.

2. MORAL PHILOSOPHY regulates the Will, and guides the Affections to their proper Objects, in which conſiſts all moral Enjoyments.

3. BUT as we are made ſocial Creatures, it often happens, in his our Purſuit of Truth and Good, that we can aſſiſt, or ſhorten, he Labors of each other, by our mutual Experience and Obſervaion. For this Reaſon the DEITY, to the Powers of the Intellect nd Will, has ſuperadded the Power of SPEECH, as eſſentially neceſſary to finiſh this noble Structure of human Nature. And this leads us to ſee the Uſe of RHETORIC and ELOQUENCE, by Means of which we exhort, perſuade, give and receive Information, and are enabled to promote Juſtice, Truth, good Polity, and the greateſt public and private Happineſs.

THUS have we gone to the very Foundation of theſe three Sciences, in order to aſcertain their Preheminence. MORAL PHILOSOPHY, 'tis true, is the Miſtreſs not only of the other Two, but of all other human Arts and Sciences; nevertheleſs the beſt moral Writers * do not omit LOGIC, but conſider it as an End, as well as MORAL PHILOSOPHY. The Reaſon is obvious. The ſupreme Happineſs of our rational Nature conſiſts both of the intellectual and moral Enjoyments; and the Pleaſures of an improv'd Underſtanding are not only extremely becoming our Nature, and a vaſt Addition to our Happineſs, but they alſo perfect the Will or Affections, and are a great Aid to all moral Virtues, by raiſing us above thoſe meaner Enjoyments that lead to Vice. With Regard to RHETORIC we need ſay nothing more of its Utility, ſince it is univerſally allowed that we are by Nature communicative; and that our Happineſs muſt often depend upon one another, while human Affairs are ſo involved and blended as they are.

WE READILY acknowledge the Importance of other Sciences, and would not be thought to detract from them. We would only aſcertain the juſt Moment of each of them, as they tend either mediately or immediately to the Acquiſition of the ſupreme Good; and in this View, however dignified with Names, we muſt conſider all the reſt as Handmaids to theſe three, and chiefly important as ſubſervient to them.

TO POINT out the Nature and particular Excellencies of each of the three, as far as we yet underſtand them, will be the Buſineſs of thoſe who ſpeak after me; and it will become me rather to embrace this firſt Opportunity of paying our grateful Acknowledgments to you, Gentlemen, by whoſe nurſing Care we now begin to taſte the Advantages of theſe higher Attainments, and are render'd capable to point them out.

WHEN you founded this noble Inſtitution, you no Doubt were ſenſible of all that was obſerved in our former Exerciſes, to ſhew that the Happineſs and Glory of Nations depend upon the right Education of Youth. Like wiſe Men, you began on a ſolid Foundation, by getting able Proficients in the Languages and Mathematics. But you did not ſtop here. Theſe you conſidered only as a Scaffold, and entirely uſeleſs, unleſs applied to raiſe the deſign'd Superſtructure.

IT WAS not your Intention to amuſe our Heads altogether with Words, Lines or Figures; but to improve our Hearts with all noble and virtuous Sentiments! It was not your Aim ſo much to make us ingenious Men, as to make us good Citizens and GOOD CHRISTIANS!

WITH this View you generouſly reſolved to compleat your noble Undertaking, by employing Men of approved Characters in the higher Parts of Learning; and in Conſequence of this we now have the Happineſs to make our firſt public Appearance before you. ----OUR HEARTS are full; and all the Power of Eloquence would but ſhame the Subject. Youths yet unborn will, in long Succeſſion, mention theſe Actions of yours with grateful Joy;---Actions that want no Words to ſet them off;---Actions of ſuch a Nature, that in order to raiſe Admiration of them, they need only to be ſimply told. Permit us, then, without the Ceremony or Pomp of Language, to ſet the Example to thoſe who ſhall follow us, by firſt paying that to you, which will be long paid by others, ----namely, the Tribute of our dutious Affection, and ſincereſt Gratitude.

ON THIS Occaſion alſo, we ought to acknowledge the great Honor done us, by all thoſe worthy Perſonages, who are pleaſed to animate and encourage us with their Preſence. This Honor is ſo much the greater, as it is conferred not only by Gentlemen of the firſt Rank who reſide here, but alſo by Strangers; and amongſt others, by * One eſpecially, who is no leſs eminent for his Knowledge of the World, and fine Taſte for Letters, than his high Station in Life.

BUT, in a more particular Manner, † YOU, Sir, to whom the Adminiſtration of this Province is committed, we cannot but be proud to thank for your engaging Condeſcenſion in this Reſpect.

AS THE Muſes ſoften and humanize the Temper, they have, thro' every Age, been protected and cheriſhed, in a peculiar Degree, by all thoſe truly heroic Chiefs, who have deemed it far more glorious to reign in the Hearts of FREEMEN, than to lord it abſolutely over SLAVES.

OUR Royal Sovereign, whom you have the Honor to repreſent, has, thro' the whole Courſe of a long and proſperous Adminiſtration, ſhewn himſelf an illuſtrious Example of the Truth of what we now aſſert. To ſee his People enlightened, poliſhed and happy, in every Corner of his extenſive Dominions, is his firſt and higheſt Joy.

OUR honorable Proprietaries, whoſe Commiſſion you bear, have ſhewn that they entertain the ſame humane and generous Sentiments, by their Readineſs to encourage and protect an Inſtitution ſo friendly and auſpicious to the true Intereſts of the human Kind, as a Seminary of ſound and uſeful Literature, in their Province. In every Propoſal made to them for its real Advantage, they have hitherto concurred.

IN LIKE Manner, your worthy Predeceſſor, whoſe Name ought always to be mentioned with Honor in this Government, has, on every Occaſion, ſhewn himſelf a Friend to the ſame benevolent Inſtitution in particular, as well as an Encourager of polite Learning in general. And here, tho' it may be imputed to our Vanity, we cannot but remark, that at a Time when (with more than Roman Greatneſs of Soul) he declined the whole Government of this rich and flouriſhing Province, yet even then he condeſcended to accept a Part in the Truſt and Direction of this Academy.

FROM YOU, Sir, we have the juſteſt Reaſon to look for equal Kindneſs. You are well known to be an able Proficient in all the Branches of a genteel Education. You have ſeen many Nations and Countries. You have obſerved the ſad Effects of Ignorance and Error upon all the better Intereſts of Mankind, and have, no Doubt, greatly improved theſe Opportunities, by laying up a Fund of Obſervations, that may be of laſting Uſe to this Country.

WHEN, therefore, one of your liberal and enlarged Turn of Mind, conſiders in how ſmall a Part of this Globe, true unadulterated SCIENCE has Footing, you cannot but think it one of the principal Honors of your Adminiſtration, to protect the Infancy of SCIENCE here. Thus ſhall you have the Pleaſure to ſee a vaſt unformed Multitude of People entirely reſcued from the Barbarian Ignorance that hangs over them, and gradually fitted for reliſhing all the exalted Privileges of a poliſhed and free Government. A Proviſion ſhall be made for propagating from Age to Age, thoſe noble and heroic Sentiments, which lead Men chearfully to ſubmit to a free and well-tempered RULE; but bravely to ſpurn every mean Attempt to abridge their native Privileges, or wound the Dignity---the MAJESTY of human Nature.

* His Excellency JOHN TINKER, Eſq;

† The Honorable ROBERT HUNTER MORRIS, Eſq;

N. B. As theſe Addreſſes ariſe naturally out of the Subject, we followed no other Method, with Regard to Priority, than that pointed out.

[To be continued.]

On the 18th of laſt Month, his Excellency Governor SHIRLEY made a Speech in the Council-Chamber in Boſton, to the Great and General Court or Aſſembly of the Province; in which, after giving a particular Account of the late Proceedings at Kennebeck, he goes on, and ſays,

Gentlemen of the Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I SHALL now lay before you a Journal of the Proceedings of the Commiſſioners of ſeveral Provinces and Colonies in the late Convention at Albany, wherein (beſides their Renewal of the League with the Indians of the Six Nations*) is contain'd a Repreſentation of the dangerous State his Majeſty's Dominions in* North-America are in, by Reaſon of the Encroachments and Power of the French, and their growing Influence over the Indians; with a Scheme by the ſaid Commiſſioners projected and agreed upon for ſuch an Union between all the Engliſh Governments in North-America, as was by them judg'd neceſſary for their mutual Defence: This is an Affair of ſuch Moment, as will require your moſt deliberate Attention, and the ſpeedieſt Diſpatch to ripen it for the ſeaſonable Conſideration of the Parliament of Great-Britain, whoſe Authority is judg'd requiſite for effecting and conſolidating ſo deſirable an Union.

I think it material to lay before you an Extract from a private Letter, which hath been communicated to me, dated at Onoh'quanghe, the 14*th of* Sept. laſt, in which among other Things there is this Paragraph: "Our Indians inform us, That the French ſpare no "Pains to diſengage the Six-Nations from the Engliſh, and attach "them to their Intereſt.---That the Governor of Canada has ſent ſix "Battoes into their Country with Goods, two to the Oneida's Caſtle, "two to the Cayouga's, and two to the Onondaga's; and that a "French Prieſt lately ſent a Belt of Wampum to Oneidy, to prepare "the Way for his Reception among them. The Prieſt tells them that "he compaſſionates their Ignorance, and is deſirous, with their Leave, "to come and inſtruct them in the Chriſtian Religion."

If the laſt Circumſtance, Gentlemen, is true, we muſt look upon it as done with the Privity, at leaſt, if not by the Direction of the Government of Canada; and if the French are ſuffered to put in Practice this Artifice among the Indians of the Six-Nations, we may give them up as entirely loſt to the Engliſh.

I therefore think it my Duty to obſerve, that it is a moſt unwarrantable Practice in the French, under the Pretence of goſpelizing the Indians, to ſend their Miſſionary Prieſts into his Majeſty's Territories, and the Countries ſubject by Treaties to his Dominion, in order to debauch the Indians there in Alliance and Friendſhip with the Engliſh, from their Fidelity and Attachment to him; and engage them in Acts of Rapine and Slaughter againſt his Subjects: It is to the Suffering of this, that we chiefly owe the Miſchiefs and Depredations we have for ſo many Years felt from our Eaſtern Indians: And I think it high Time that ſome publick Notice ſhould be taken of this Practice to the Government of Canada, expreſſing a proper Reſentment at this injurious Treatment; and I ſhould be glad of your Advice upon this Matter.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

I hope you will proceed in raiſing the neceſſary Supplies with the ſame Spirit of Unanimity and Diſpatch which was exerted in providing for the Service of the late Expedition; it would be extremely happy at this Conjuncture if you could agree upon ſuch Ways and Means of gathering in the Taxes as would be the leaſt exceptionable to the People in general, as well as what would ſecure the Sums which the Funds ought to produce.

Gentlemen,

I am ſenſible it is ſtill a buſy Seaſon for Huſbandry Affairs, and therefore would not detain you at this Seſſion longer than the Buſineſs to be done in it ſhall require your Attendance.

Council-Chamber, October 18, 1754. W. SHIRLEY.

WILLIAMSBURG, November 7.

On Saturday laſt the General Aſſembly was prorogued, when his Honour the Governor was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH.

Gentlemen of the Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes,

I SINCERELY thank you for your Vote of Supply, for conducting the neceſſary Expedition. I ſhall take proper Care of repreſenting to his Majeſty, your Loyalty, and the Aid you have granted.

Be aſſured, Gentlemen, the Money now given ſhall be, with great Frugality, and due Oeconomy, applied for the Uſes it is intended.

As you have unanimouſly granted this Supply, I am to deſire your Intereſt, in the different Counties you repreſent, to encourage the Subjects, by your Arguments, and Reaſons, freely to enliſt for the Protection of our Lives, and Fortunes; and to give your Countenance to ſuch Officers that may be commiſſioned to raiſe the Levies.

And I heartily deſire Love, and Friendſhip, may ſubſiſt among the different Ranks of our People. Your Example, Gentlemen, will be great Encouragement to others; and, I hope, for the future, generous Benevolence will incite every Member of the Community, to a due and juſt Regard, for the Happineſs, and Peace, of the Whole.

I therefore prorogue you to the ſecond Thurſday in March next, and you are accordingly prorogued to that Time.

An ACT for raiſing Levies and Recruits to ſerve in the preſent Expedition againſt the French, on the Ohio.

I. WHEREAS his Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſend Inſtructions to his Lieutenant-Governor of this Colony, to raiſe and levy Soldiers for carrying on the preſent Expedition againſt the French on the Ohio; and this preſent General-Aſſembly being deſirous, upon all Occaſions, to teſtify their Loyalty and Duty; and taking into their Conſideration, that there are, in every County and Corporation within this Colony, able bodied Perſons, fit to ſerve his Majeſty, who follow no lawful Calling or Employment.

II. Be it therefore Enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Burgeſſes of this preſent General Aſſembly, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices of the Peace of every County or Corporation within this Colony, or any two or more of them, within their ſeveral and reſpective Counties and Corporations, upon Application made to them, by any Officer or Officers appointed or impowered to enliſt Men, to raiſe and levy ſuch able bodied Men, as do not follow or exerciſe any lawful Calling or Employment, or have not ſome other lawful and ſufficient Support and Maintenance, to ſerve his Majeſty, as Soldiers in the preſent Expedition; and to require and command all Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and Conſtables, within their reſpective Counties and Corporations, to be aiding and aſſiſting to them in putting this Act in Execution; and for that Purpoſe to iſſue out Warrants under the Hands and Seals of any two or more of them; thereby commanding ſuch Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and Conſtables, as aforeſaid, every, or any of them, to make, or cauſe Search to be made, within their reſpective Counties and Corporations, for all ſuch Perſons as they can find, who are, or ſhall appear to them to be within the Deſcription of this Act; and to bring before the ſaid Juſtices all ſuch Perſons: And in caſe the ſaid Juſtices, hereby authorized and impowered to put this Act in Execution, upon Examination of the Perſon or Perſons ſo brought before them, ſhall judge them, or any of them, to be ſuch as are herby intended to be entertained in his Majeſty's Service on this Expedition, they ſhall immediately liſt him or them as Soldiers; and the ſaid Juſtices are hereby authoriſed and required, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two or more of them, to cauſe the Perſon or Perſons ſo enliſted, to be delivered to ſuch Officer or Officers, who are hereby required to give a Receipt for ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo delivered to him; which Receipt ſhall be returned to the ſaid Juſtices, and by them tranſmitted to the Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to the taking or levying any Perſon to ſerve as a Soldier, who hath any Vote in the Election of a Burgeſs or Burgeſſes to ſerve in the General-Aſſembly of this Colony, or who is, or ſhall be an Indented or being bought Servant, or any Perſon under the Age of Twenty One Years, or above the Age of Fifty Years.

IV. And be it further Enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Pay of every Soldier enliſted by Virtue of this Act, ſhall commence from the Time of his being taken, and delivered to ſuch Officer or Officers appointed or impowered to enliſt Men, and ſuch Soldier, ſhall receive the ſame Rewards as any other enliſted Soldier.

V. And be it further Enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons inliſted by Virtue of this Act, ſhall be ſo maimed or wounded, as to be render'd incapable of maintaining themſelves, they ſhall, upon their Return, be ſupported at the Publick Expence.

VI. And be it further Enacted, That this Act, or ſo much thereof, as relates to the raiſing and levying Men, ſhall continue and be in Force, from and after the Paſſing thereof, during the Term of one Year, and no longer.

ANNAPOLIS, November 7.

Sunday Morning laſt, his Excellency Horatio Sharpe, Eſq; our Governer returned home in Health, from Virginia: His Excellency, at Williamſburgh, received his Majeſty's Commiſſion appointing him Commander in Chief of all the Forces that are, or may be, raiſed to defend the Frontiers of that, and the neighbouring Colonies, and to repel the unjuſtifiable Invaſion and Encroachments of the French, on the River Ohio.

Nov. 14. Laſt Tueſday Morning at Five a Clock, his Excellency our Governor, attended by ſome Officers of the Virginia Regiment, and others, ſet out from hence for Wills's Creek.

We hear from the far back Settlements, that a few Weeks ago they had very heavy Rains, which did conſiderable Damage; that one poor Man, who lived low, had his Houſe quite carried away, and that he and his Wife were forced to betake themſelves to a Tree, where they ſtay'd two Days, the Water being Five or Six Feet deep at the Root of it.

LONDON, September 20.

Yeſterday there was a great Court and a Council at Kenſington, on Affairs of Importance.

The following are the Sentiments of a Country-Gentleman, delivered in a Letter to his Friend in London.

----- "I obſerve our publick Papers are perpetually ſtuffed up with Plates and Running-Horſes. Is it not moſt melancholly, to ſee the good People of England thus diverting themſelves, while our Neighbours have the higher Satisfaction of running away with our Trade, invading our Settlements, and making us the Contempt of both the Indies.---O fooliſh Britons! Who hath bewitched you? Are you ſo immerſed in Races, and various other Follies, as to diſregard impending Ruin!---Do you not ſee your Frontiers attacked? ---- And do you not know, that when the Enemy has taken the Out-Works, the Town cannot long hold out?------O quit your deſtructive Sports! and rouze my Countrymen, e're it is too late!."

Private Letters from Paris of the 13th Inſtant ſay, that they expect to ſee the Conferences, for ſettling the Limits of North-America, reſumed in a few Days, and that the Affairs of Virginia, in particular, will not fail to be brought on the Carpet: But they inſinuate, that it is alſo expected thoſe Conferences may be ſpun out to ſuch a Length, that it may afterwards be vain to diſpute their Settling on the River Ohio. As for the intended Convention between the French and Engliſh Eaſt-India Companies, they tell us with a Sneer, that it will be concluded----when both Parties can agree.

Sept. 22. According to ſome Accounts received at the Hague from Paris, the French Court ſeem to diſavow the Conduct of the Governor of Canada, and to renew the Conferences for adjuſting amicably the Diſputes with the Engliſh in America.

Sept. 23. Our Correſpondent at Paris aſſures us, that many of the moſt intelligent Perſons there ſeem very much to doubt whether the Reconciliation between the Court and the Parliament will long ſubſiſt, the Archbiſhop of that City having, after he had received an Exhortation from the King to promote Peace and Harmony to the utmoſt of his Power, deſired the Clergy of Paris to remain firm to the Orders he had formerly given about Billets of Confeſſion.

The Algerines have taken off the Iſle of Rhodes a Malteſe Veſſel of twelve Guns, who defended herſelf for ſeveral Hours, and the Captain loſt one of his Arms in the Engagement.

Our Merchants now flatter themſelves more than ever, that they ſhall obtain from the Court of Spain the Indemnification they have ſo long claimed for illegal Captures made by the Guarda Coſtas in the Weſt-Indies. This is the Tendency of the new Inſtructions lately ſent to Sir Benjamin Keene, who is likewiſe to renew his Endeavours for compaſſing the difficult Convention ſo long wiſhed for, which would procure us, upon equitable Conditions, a certain Freedom of Commerce with the Spaniards in America.

BERMUDA, October 2. 1754.

On the 15th ultimo, at Night, we had the moſt ſurprizing Fall of Rain ever known in the Memory of Man in this Iſland: In about eight Hours there was between nine and ten Feet Water in ſeveral Valleys, and the Force of the Water was ſo rapid, that ſeveral People were obliged to cut Holes in the Walls of their Houſes to give the Water vent: What ſeem'd ſtill more ſurprizing was, that the Water was ſo ſoon ſoak'd up by the Earth; for I ſaw in a large Valley, where it was I believe three or four Feet cover'd, dry in leſs than an Hour after the rain ceaſed. I have not heard of any extraordinary Damage done, nor did this Rain extend above Half the Iſland, there being but little below Spaniſh-Point.

Our Aſſembly are to meet in leſs than a Fortnight, the Preſident having received ſome Inſtructions from England; but the Complaint againſt the Governor is undetermined. It is now near five Years ſince any Courts of Law, or indeed any other publick Buſineſs, has been ſubſiſting here, by which the Iſland is almoſt entirely ruined; nor is there any Proſpect of its being ſettled till there is a new Appointment of another Governor, it being, as yet, uncertain what Directions the Preſident has to communicate to the Aſſembly: But one Thing we underſtand is, that the Aſſembly is allowed to have a Right to diſpoſe of the publick Money as formerly, which was one of the Articles againſt the Governor.

NEW-YORK, November 18.

Yeſterday arrived here Capt. Leacraft in 8 Days from Bermuda, and ſays, That juſt before he ſailed, the Schooner Ruby, John Seymour, late Maſter, arrived there from this Port; the People whereof reported, That ſoon after they left the Hook, bound to that Iſland, on the 8th Inſtant, a Spaniſh Negroe they had on board, and ſhip'd from this Place, ſuddenly took the Advantage of and murder'd Capt. Seymour, his Mate, and a Negroe Man; and almoſt diſpatched a Paſſenger on board: That the Spaniard thereby became Maſter of the Veſſel, and kept her in Poſſeſſion three Days; when being overcome with Sleep, and appearing drowſy, a Negroe Man on board knock'd him on the Head with a Handſpike, and retook the Schooner.

PHILADELPHIA, November 28.

The SPEECH of the Honourable ROBERT HUNTER MORRIS, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, on Delaware, and of the Province of Pennſylvania, to the Aſſembly at New-Caſtle, on the 22d of October, 1754.

GENTLEMEN,

MR. HAMILTON, your late worthy Governor, having reſigned his Command, the honourable Proprietaries were pleaſed to appoint me to ſucceed him: And I have it in Charge from them, to aſſure you of their Satisfaction in the Behaviour of the Aſſemblies of theſe Counties, and of their hearty Inclination to promote the true Intereſt and Proſperity of the Inhabitants upon all Occaſions: And I am ſure I cannot more effectually recommend myſelf to them, than by protecting the People in the Enjoyment of their Civil and Religious Rights, and by adminiſtring the Government with Juſtice and Impartiality, which I ſhall heartily endeavour to do.

In Conſequence of Letters from one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and from the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, Copies of which will be laid before you, a Congreſs was held at Albany, by the Honourable JAMES DE LANCEY, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor of the Province of New York, at which Commiſſioners from Pennſylvania, and ſeveral other Provinces, aſſiſted, and I now lay before you the Minutes of their Proceedings.

You will there ſee His Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Countries, lately ſeized by the French, clearly ſet forth and aſſerted, the Schemes of the French to make themſelves Maſters of this Continent, and their unjuſt Proceedings thereupon, pointed out and laid open: And you will be thence alſo informed of the true State of Indian Affairs, and of the Progreſs the French have made in their Attempts to draw over to their Alliance all the Nations that border upon the Engliſh Plantations; and that the Neglect and ill Uſage of thoſe uſeful People by the Engliſh Colonies, have ſo far favoured the French, that it is to be feared we have hardly one entire Nation of Indians left us, upon whom we can with Reaſon depend.

I am ſorry to lay before you ſo diſagreable a Proſpect at this our firſt meeting together in General-Aſſembly; but my Duty to His Majeſty and the Publick, obliges me to recommend this Matter to your ſerious Conſideration; and the conſtant loyal Behaviour of the People of this Government, and their Readineſs upon every Occaſion to exert themſelves for the Publick Service, leaves me no Room to doubt, but that you will, at this Time, contribute your beſt Endeavours, according to your Circumſtances, for the Defence of your Country; and enable me, in Concert with the Governors of His Majeſty's other Colonies, to repel this unjuſt Invaſion of His Majeſty's Dominions.

I have only this further to aſſure you, that I ſhall be ready now, and at all Times, to join with you in paſſing ſuch Laws as ſhall be found neceſſary for the better Government of the People of theſe Counties.

ROBERT HUNTER MORRIS.

To the Honourable ROBERT HUNTER MORRIS, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, upon Delaware, and Province of Pennſylvania.

May it pleaſe your HONOUR,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, on Delaware, beg Leave heartily to congratulate you on your Appointment to this Government, and happy Arrival among us.

The Reſignation of our late worthy Governor Mr. Hamilton, gave us a very ſenſible Concern; his Adminiſtration was mild and gentle, attended with Honour to himſelf, and Satisfaction to his People: And nothing could compenſate for our Loſs of him, but his being ſucceeded by a Gentleman of your approved and diſtinguiſhed Merit and Virtue, who, we have great Reaſon to expect, will protect the People of this Government, in the Enjoyment of their Civil and Religious Rights, and will make Juſtice and Impartiality the Rule of your Adminiſtration.

Nothing can give us greater Pleaſure, than the Satisfaction our honourable Proprietaries are pleaſed to aſſure us they have in the Conduct of the Aſſemblies of this Government: And we gratefully acknowledge the hearty Inclinations they expreſs to promote the true Intereſt and Proſperity of the Inhabitants, on all Occaſions. We ſhall think ourſelves happy, in preſerving their Eſteem and good Opinion, and ſhall always ſtudy to cultivate and improve it.

We have taken into our Conſideration, the Copies of the Letters from one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, together with the Minutes of the Proceedings, at the Congreſs held this Summer at Albany, that you were pleaſed to lay before us; which evince His Majeſty's undoubted Right to the Countries on this Continent, lately ſeized by the French, the deſtructive Tendency of their ambitious Schemes, and the Cruelty and Injuſtice of their Proceedings. And we are much concerned to find, that the Neglect and ill Uſage of the Six Nations of Indians, whoſe Friendſhip and Alliance would be attended with the greateſt Advantages to us, have ſo far favoured the French, that it is to be feared we can, with little Reaſon, have any Dependance upon them. When we reflect on the Perfidy of the French Nation; the large Strides they have long been making towards the Eſtabliſhment of univerſal Monarchy, by poſſeſſing themſelves of a great Part of our Country, and fortifying themſelves therein; the Barbarities and Cruelties they have practiſed on our Fellow Subjects near our Frontiers; we are fired with the higheſt Indignation and Reſentment. The Inhabitants of this Government, are inconſiderable in Point of Numbers and Riches, compared with the ſeveral Governments round about us; but we beg Leave to aſſure you, that we have not leſs Zeal for His Majeſty's Honour and Service, and ſhall chearfully go into a ſerious Conſideration of the proper Meaſures to contribute, as much as our preſent Circumſtances will admit us, towards the Defence of our Country, to enable you to act in Concert with the Governors of His Majeſty's other Colonies, to repel this unjuſt Invaſion of His Dominions, in which we doubt not your Concurrence and Aſſiſtance.

We return you our Thanks for the Aſſurance you are pleaſed to give us of your Readineſs now, and at all Times, to join with us, in paſſing ſuch Laws as ſhall be judg'd neceſſary for the better Government of the People of theſe Counties; and we ſhall carefully avoid propoſing any, but ſuch as appear to us to be conſiſtent with the Duty we owe to His Majeſty, and our honourable Proprietaries, and the Happineſs of our Conſtituents.

BENJAMIN CHEW, Speaker.

A MESSAGE from the GOVERNOR to the ASSEMBLY.

GENTLEMEN,

SINCE ſpeaking to you at the Opening of the Seſſions, I have received a Letter from Sir Thomas Robinſon, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, ſignifying to me His Majeſty's expreſs Commands, that I ſhould not only act with Vigour, in Defence of the Governments under my Care, but ſhould aſſiſt His Majeſty's other Colonies to repel any hoſtile Attempts made againſt them. This Letter I now lay before you, and hope, when you have maturely conſidered the Nature and Importance of the Service recommended to me, you will, as becomes dutiful Subjects to the beſt of Kings, and careful Guardians of your Country's Safety, exert yourſelves upon the preſent Occaſion, and enable me to teſtify my Duty to His Majeſty, and Love to this Country, by acting up to the Royal Expectations, ſo warmly expreſſed in the Secretary of State's Letter.

ROBERT HUNTER MORRIS.

New-Caſtle, Oct. 28, 1754.

On theſe Meſſages the Houſe voted the Sum of One Thouſand Pounds, for His Majeſty's Uſe, and a Bill was paſſed, laying a Duty of Three Pence per Gallon on retailed Liquors, for the Term of Five Years, as a Fund to ſink the ſaid Money.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in New-York, to his Friend, November 13, 1754.

"The following Particulars I have juſt received from A[lbany], viz. The French Governor at Canada, and his Clergy, are what they can to draw off the two Caſtles of Mohawks [Country], which, if not ſoon prevented, they will effect, promiſing them largely. The Governor has ſent by the laſt Cachnawaga a very hearty Invitation to them to come to Canada, and that he receive them with open Arms. The Onondaga's, Cayouga's, Tuſcararoes, went to Canada laſt Month, to the Number of The Indians at Oſwego have behaved very inſolently to our and more particulary ſo ſince Waſhington's Defeat. Many Frenc Indians marched to the Ohio in September. Laſt Month of the Cachnawaga's and Schaweidadda's, were ſent from to the Shawana's, and River Indians, living at and about the their Orders are to treat with theſe Nations, and demand a ſwer to a Meſſage ſent them laſt Year by the Governor of C and they are to do what they can to alienate them from us, leaſt to make them neuter in the Ohio Affair."

Tueſday laſt Captain Cotton arrived here from Barbados, a viſes of the ſafe Arrival there of the Captains Arthur, Ed Edwards, and Gardner, from this Place; alſo that Captain way, of this Port, was arrived from Cape-Fear. He likew forms, that they had a Gale of Wind in that Iſland on the ult. by which one Brigantine belonging there was drove a Schooner and Sloop loſt their Boltſprits; and ſome other D was done by the Veſſels getting foul of one another.

From South-Carolina there is Advice, that the Molly and Capt. Magee, bound hither from the North Side of the Iſland maica, having met with bad Weather in his Paſſage, bore a Charles-Town, and got ſafe in.
